

Charter of the Bill of State Rights As Granted by the Union

Preamble:

Recognizing the fundamental role of states in governance and administration, and upholding the principles of federalism within the TREDT Union, this Charter affirms the rights and privileges granted to each state by the Union, ensuring autonomy while maintaining national unity and cohesion.

---

Article I: State Sovereignty & Governance

1. Each state shall have the right to self-governance in all matters not expressly reserved for the Union.
2. The state government shall consist of a Governor, a State Cabinet, and a State Legislature, which shall have the authority to enact laws on subjects within their jurisdiction.
3. The state shall have the power to establish and regulate local administrative bodies for governance and public welfare.

Article II: Legislative Authority

1. States shall have exclusive legislative power over matters including but not limited to education, agriculture, public health, infrastructure, law enforcement, and local trade.
2. Any law passed by the state legislature shall be valid unless it directly contradicts the constitutional provisions of the Union.
3. States may propose amendments to their own constitutions, provided such amendments do not conflict with the Union's supreme law.

Article III: Fiscal and Economic Rights

1. States shall have the power to levy and collect taxes on subjects within their jurisdiction, subject to the Union's tax regulations.
2. The Union shall allocate financial grants to states based on economic needs, development requirements, and equitable distribution policies.
3. States shall have the right to regulate and manage their natural resources, industries, and economic policies in accordance with Union law.

Article IV: Law Enforcement and Judiciary

1. Each state shall maintain its own police force for internal security and law enforcement.
2. The state judiciary shall have the authority to adjudicate on matters within the state's jurisdiction, with appeals subject to review by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT and the Chief Justice of TREDT.
3. States shall have the right to establish special courts and tribunals for handling specific legal matters as deemed necessary.

Article V: Relations with the Union Government

1. The Governor of each state shall represent the state in the Council of States.
2. The state government shall have the right to communicate and negotiate directly with the Union Cabinet regarding state matters.
3. States shall have the right to challenge any Union law that infringes upon their rights before the Chief Justice of TREDT.

Article VI: Emergency Provisions

1. The President of the Union may declare a state of emergency in a state only under conditions of war, rebellion, or constitutional breakdown, subject to approval by the TREDT Legislative House.
2. During an emergency, the Union may temporarily assume control over state governance, but normalcy shall be restored at the earliest possible time.
3. States shall have the right to appeal against any imposition of emergency before the Chief Justice of TREDT.

Article VII: Amendments and Revisions

1. This Charter may be amended through a two-thirds majority vote in the Council of States and subsequent ratification by at least two-thirds of the states.
2. No amendment shall diminish the fundamental rights of states without their consent.

---

Ratified by the Council of States

Enacted by the President of Central Council
Signed and Sealed on this Day of 19/02/2025