- f. The total number of Ministers, including the Cabinet Minister, in the Council of Ministers shall not exceed the limit of 15 as prescribed by law.
- g. The salaries and allowances of Ministers shall be as determined by Parliament.
- h. The President may require the Council of Ministers to reconsider such advice, either generally or otherwise; and the President shall act in accordance with the advice tendered after such reconsideration.

CHAPTER II PARLIAMENT

Abstract

“This Chapter outlines the structure, composition, powers, and functions of the Parliament of the TREDT Union, which serves as the supreme legislative authority of the Union. It consists of the President and two Houses—the Council of States of TREDT (Upper House) and the House of Representatives of the Members of Union (Lower House). The Council of States represents the States of the Union, while the House of the People represents the citizens directly through elected members. This Chapter defines the qualifications, terms, procedures, privileges, and responsibilities of Houses, ensuring democratic participation and law-making in accordance with the Constitution. It details how laws are introduced, debated, and passed, and provides mechanisms for financial legislation, parliamentary oversight, and accountability of the Executive. Together, the two Houses, along with the President, form the legislative foundation of the Union, balancing representation, governance, and federal unity.”

21. Constitution of Parliament—

- a. There shall be a Parliament for the TREDT Union, to be known as the TREDT Legislative House.
- b. The Parliament shall consist of:
 - i. the President of the Union,
 - ii. the Council of States of TREDT, and
 - iii. The House of Representatives of the Members of Union.
- c. The President shall summon each House of Parliament to meet at such time and place as deemed appropriate and may prorogue either House or dissolve the House of Representatives of the Members of Union in accordance with this Constitution.
- d. House of Parliament can function without the formal notification of the President convening its session.
- e. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution, the Parliament shall have the power to make laws for the whole or any part of the territory of the Union.

22. Composition of the Council of States of TREDT—

- a. The Council of States of TREDT shall be the Upper House of the Union Parliament and shall represent the constituent States of the TREDT Union.
- b. The total number of members of the Council of States of TREDT shall be prescribed by law, provided that:
 - i. Each State shall be allotted only 2 seats.
 - ii. The number of representatives from each State and Union Territory shall be 2 only.
- c. Members of the Council of States of TREDT shall be elected by the elected members of the State Legislative Assemblies in accordance with the system of proportional representation by means of the single transferable vote.

 - 2) Four, in the case of the House of Representatives of the Members of Union;
 - iii. Possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by law made by Parliament.
- b) No person shall be eligible for membership of Parliament if they are of unsound mind and so declared by a competent court.
- c) A person shall not be qualified to be a Member of Parliament if they hold any office of profit under the Union or any State Government, except offices declared by law not to disqualify.
- d) A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a Member of Parliament if they are so disqualified under any law relating to corrupt practices or electoral offences.

26. Sessions of Parliament, Prorogation, and Dissolution—

- a. The President shall, from time to time, summon each House of Parliament to meet at such time and place as they think fit:
 - i. Provided that six months shall not intervene between the last sitting of a House in one session and the date appointed for its first sitting in the next session.
- b. The President may, from time to time, prorogue either House or both Houses of Parliament.
- c. The President may dissolve the House of Representatives only—
 - (i) where a vote of no-confidence has been passed and no alternative Government is capable of commanding the confidence of the House within 7 days;
 - (ii) Where the House of Representatives resolves by a two-thirds majority of its total membership requesting dissolution.
- d. A joint sitting of both Houses may be convened by the President in accordance with constitutional provisions to resolve disagreements between the two Houses on specific legislative matters.
- e. The procedure for summoning, proroguing, and dissolving the Houses shall be regulated by rules made under this Constitution or by law enacted by Parliament.

27. Central House Governor of the House of Representatives of the Members of Union—

- a. There shall be a Central House Governor of the House of Representatives of the Members of Union, who shall be elected by the members of the House from amongst themselves.
- b. The Central House Governor shall preside over the sittings of the House and shall maintain order, ensure observance of constitutional procedures, and regulate debates and voting in accordance with the rules of procedure of the House.
- c. The Central House Governor shall not vote in the first instance but shall exercise a casting vote in the case of a tie.
- d. The House shall, as soon as may be, elect a Deputy Central House Governor, who shall act as the Central House Governor—
 - i. when the office of Central House Governor is vacant;
 - ii. Or in the absence of the Central House Governor from any sitting of the House.

- e. The Central House Governor or the Deputy Central House Governor may be removed from office by a resolution passed by a majority of all the then members of the House, after giving due notice, in the manner prescribed by rules of procedure.
- f. The resignation of the Central House Governor or Deputy Central House Governor shall be submitted in writing to the President of the Union.

28. President of the Central Council of the Council of States of TREDT—

- a. The Vice-President of the TREDT Union shall be the ex officio President of the Central Council of the Council of States of TREDT.
- b. The President of the Central Council shall preside over the sessions of the Council of States and shall conduct its proceedings in accordance with constitutional provisions and the rules of procedure of the Council.
- c. The President of the Central Council shall not vote in the first instance but shall exercise a casting vote in the case of an equality of votes.
- d. The Council of States shall elect from among its members a Deputy President of the Central Council, who shall act as the President—
 - i. during the absence of the Vice-President, or
 - ii. when the office of Vice-President is vacant, or
 - iii. When the Vice-President is discharging the functions of the President of the Union.
- e. The Deputy President of the Central Council may be removed by a resolution passed by a majority of all the then members of the Council, provided that at least fourteen days' notice has been given of the intention to move such a resolution.
- f. The Deputy President may resign from office by writing under their hand addressed to the President of the Union.

29. Legislative Procedure in Parliament and Voting in Houses—

a. Origination of Bills:

- i. A Bill may originate in either the House of Representatives of the Members of Union or the Council of States of TREDT, except in the case of a Money Bill which shall only originate in the House of Representatives.

- ii. A Bill passed by one House shall be transmitted to the other House for consideration and approval or directly to the president.

b. Procedure for Passing Bills:

- i. A Bill shall be deemed to have been passed by Parliament only when it has been passed by both Houses, either without amendment or with such amendments as are mutually agreed upon.
- ii. If a Bill passed by one House is rejected by the other House or the Houses have finally disagreed as to the amendments, the President may summon a joint sitting to resolve the deadlock.

c. Joint Sitting:

- i. A joint sitting of both Houses shall be presided over by the Central House Governor or, in their absence, by such person as may be determined by law or procedure.
- ii. The decision of the majority present and voting at such joint sitting shall be deemed to be the decision of Parliament.

d. Assent of the President:

- i. When a Bill has been passed by both Houses, it shall be presented to the President of the Union for assent.
- ii. The President may—
 - 1) give assent to the Bill,
 - 2) withhold assent for maximum 2 weeks, or
 - 3) Return the Bill (if not a Money Bill) for reconsideration.
 - 4) OMITTED
- iii. If the Bill is passed again by both Houses, with or without amendment, the President shall give his assent to it.
- iv. Whenever the President returns a Bill, the President shall communicate written constitutional reasons to Parliament.

Voting in Houses—

- a. All matters in either House shall be decided by a majority of members present and voting, unless otherwise provided in this Constitution.
- b. The Speaker of the House of Representatives or the President of the Central Council of States shall not vote in the first instance but shall exercise a casting vote in the case of a tie.
- c. The rules for voting, quorum, division, and recording of votes shall be governed by the procedures of each House or by law made by Parliament.

Article 29A – Parliamentary Override –

- a. Where the President returns a Bill and Parliament passes the Bill again by a majority of the total membership of each House, the President shall be constitutionally bound to grant assent.
- b. No Presidential objection shall prevent the enactment of a Bill which has been duly repassed under 29(d)(iii).

30. Disqualifications of Members—

- a. A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of either House of Parliament if they—

 - vi) Are disqualified under any law made by Parliament related to electoral offences, corrupt practices, or defection.
- b. If any question arises as to whether a member has become subject to disqualification, the matter shall be referred to the President of the Union, who shall act according to the opinion of the Union Judiciary.
- c. A member found guilty of defection, as defined by law, shall be disqualified from the date of such determination and may also be barred from re-election for a period prescribed by Parliament.
- d. No person who is disqualified from being a Member of Parliament shall sit or vote in either House. Any such sitting or vote shall be void and may require repayment of allowances drawn during such period, as prescribed by law.

31. Privileges of Members—

- a. Subject to the provisions of this Constitution and any law made by Parliament, there shall be freedom of speech and expression in Parliament, and no member shall be liable to any proceedings in any court for anything said or any vote given by them in Parliament or any committee thereof.
- b. No member shall be liable to arrest—
 - i) in civil proceedings, during the continuance of a session of Parliament,

- ii) or during a period of fourteen days before and after such session,
 - iii) Except in accordance with law or with the prior permission of the House to which the member belongs.
- c. No person shall be liable in respect of the publication of any report, paper, vote, or proceedings of Parliament under the authority of either House.
- d. The powers, privileges, and immunities of each House, its members, and its committees shall be such as may from time to time be defined by Parliament by law.
- e. Until such law is made, the powers, privileges, and immunities of each House and its members shall be those that prevailed on the date of commencement of this Constitution.
- f. The privileges guaranteed under this Article shall not grant immunity in cases of treason, grave criminal conduct, or breach of public trust, as defined by law.

32. Right of President to Address and Send Messages to Houses—

- a. The President of the Union shall have the right to address either House of Parliament or both Houses assembled together, and may require the attendance of members for that purpose.
- b. The President may send messages to either House of Parliament, whether with respect to a Bill then pending in Parliament or otherwise, and each House shall, with all convenient dispatch, consider any matter required by the message to be taken into consideration.
- c. At the commencement of the first session after each general election to the House of Representatives of the Members of Union and at the commencement of the first session of each year, the President shall address both Houses of Parliament assembled together and inform them of the causes of the summons.
- d. The form, manner, and procedure for such addresses and messages shall be regulated by the rules of procedure of each House.

CHAPTER III

LEGISLATIVE POWERS OF THE PRESIDENT

Abstract

“This Chapter outlines the special legislative powers conferred upon the President of the TREDT Union to maintain the continuity of governance and to address urgent legislative needs when Parliament is not in session. These powers enable the President to promulgate Ordinances that carry the same force and effect as Acts of Parliament, subject to subsequent approval by both Houses. The President also exercises constitutional authority in matters such as giving or withholding assent to Bills, recommending the introduction of specific types of legislation, and returning Bills for reconsideration. These functions are to be carried out in accordance with the Constitution, and ordinarily, based on the advice of the Council of Ministers. The Chapter ensures that legislative processes remain responsive and functional even during inter-session periods or times of national exigency.”

33. Power of the President to Promulgate Ordinances—

- a. When both Houses of Parliament are not in session and the President is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary to take immediate action, the President may promulgate such Ordinances.
 - i. No Ordinance shall be promulgated unless circumstances exist requiring immediate legislative action and such matter cannot reasonably await consideration by Parliament.
- b. An Ordinance so promulgated shall have the same force and effect as an Act of Parliament, but every such Ordinance—
 - i) shall be laid before both Houses of Parliament, and
 - ii) Shall cease to operate at the expiration of six weeks from the reassembly of Parliament, unless approved by both Houses before the expiry of that period.
- c. The President may withdraw an Ordinance at any time.
- d. An Ordinance may make provisions that could be enacted by Parliament under this Constitution but shall not amend the Constitution.

Article 33A – Statement of Necessity –

- a. Every Ordinance promulgated by the President shall contain a Statement of Necessity specifying the exceptional circumstances requiring immediate legislative action.

CHAPTER IV

THE UNION JUDICIARY STATUTES

Abstract

“This Chapter establishes the judicial branch of the TREDT Union, which serves as the guardian of the Constitution, protector of the rule of law, and final arbiter of disputes involving the Union, the States, and the citizens. It provides for the constitution, composition, powers, and jurisdiction of the Supreme Court—the highest judicial authority in the Union. The Union Judiciary ensures the enforcement of Fundamental Rights, interprets constitutional provisions, and settles intergovernmental disputes. It includes provisions for the appointment, tenure, qualifications, and removal of Judges to ensure independence and impartiality. The Supreme Court shall have original, appellate, and advisory jurisdiction as defined by the Constitution and laws made by Parliament. The Union Judiciary acts as the keystone of the federal democratic framework and upholds justice, equality, and constitutional integrity across the territory of the TREDT Union.”

Article 35. Statutes—

35. Constitution of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT—

- a. There shall be an Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, which shall be the highest judicial authority of the Union.
- b. The Imperial Court shall consist of—
 - i) The Chief Imperial Justice of TREDT, and
 - ii) Such number of other Imperial Justices as may be prescribed by law.
- c. The seat of the Imperial Court shall be at the Union Territory of the Union Pillars of the Union, but the Court may sit and hold sessions at such other places as the Chief Imperial Justice may, with the approval of the President, appoint.

Statute 36. Appointment and Tenure of Imperial Justices—

- a. The Chief Imperial Justice and other Imperial Justices shall be appointed by the President of the Union in consultation with the Council of Ministers and a Collegium of Senior Judges, as may be prescribed by law.
- b. Every Imperial Justice shall hold office until the attainment of the unless—
 - i. They resign by writing under their hand addressed to the President, or
 - ii. Are removed from office in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.

Statute 37. Qualifications for Appointment

A person shall be qualified for appointment as an Imperial Justice if they—

- a) Are a member of the TREDT Union, and
- b) Have been a Judge of a High Court for not less than 4 month, or
- c) Have been an advocate of a High Court for not less than 7 months, or
- d) Possess, in the opinion of the President and the Judicial Collegium, distinguished knowledge or experience in law, justice, or public affairs.

Statute 38. Oath of Office

“Before entering upon office, the Chief Imperial Justice and each Imperial Justice shall make and subscribe to an oath or affirmation in the form prescribed by law, swearing to uphold the Constitution, dispense justice impartially, and perform their duties faithfully and fearlessly as prescribed in Article 12.”

Statute 39. Jurisdiction of the Imperial Court of Justice

- a. The Imperial Court shall have original jurisdiction in any dispute—
 - i) Between the Union and one or more States, or
 - ii) Between two or more States.
- b. It shall have appellate jurisdiction over decisions from High Courts and other tribunals, civil and criminal, as prescribed by law.
- c. It shall have advisory jurisdiction to render opinions to the President on questions of law or fact of public importance, referred under this Constitution.

Statute 40. Powers to Issue Writs and Revoke Fundamental Rights—

- a. The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT shall have the power to issue writs, orders, or directions, including writs in the nature of Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, Prohibition, Quo Warranto, and Certiorari, for the enforcement of the Fundamental Rights guaranteed by this Constitution.
- b. Such writs may be issued to any person, authority, or government within the territory of the TREDT Union, including those functioning beyond its territory, where the cause of action arises under Union jurisdiction.
- c. The Imperial Court shall also have the power to declare any law, ordinance, order, or executive act as unconstitutional if it violates any Fundamental Right or exceeds the authority granted by this Constitution.
- d. Suspension or Revocation of Fundamental Rights:
 - i. The Imperial Court may, in circumstances of declared emergency, permit the temporary suspension of the enforcement of certain Fundamental Rights, subject to constitutional safeguards.
 - ii. Such suspension shall be limited to the duration of the emergency and shall not affect the rights under articles guaranteeing life, dignity, or protection from torture.

- iii. No Fundamental Right shall be permanently revoked except by a constitutional amendment ratified by a two-thirds majority in both Houses of Parliament and reviewed by the Imperial Court.
- e. The jurisdiction under this Statute shall be both original and concurrent with that of the High Courts of the States.

Statute 41. Judicial Review and Interpretation of the Constitution—

- a. The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT shall be the final authority on the interpretation of this Constitution. Its decisions shall be binding on all Union and State institutions, authorities, and courts, unless overruled by a larger bench of the Imperial Court or modified by constitutional amendment.
- b. The Imperial Court shall have the power of judicial review to examine—
 - i) the constitutionality of any law passed by Parliament or State Legislatures;
 - ii) executive actions or administrative orders of the Union or States;
 - iii) Ordinances promulgated by the President or any other authority under the Constitution.
- c. Any law, regulation, rule, or executive act found to be inconsistent with or in contravention of the Constitution shall be declared void and null to the extent of such inconsistency or contravention.
- d. The Imperial Court shall interpret the Constitution in a manner that advances justice, liberty, equality, dignity, and federal balance, preserving the spirit and structure of the Union.
- e. In rendering its interpretation, the Court may draw upon historical documents, debates, jurisprudence from comparable constitutional democracies, and principles of international law, where appropriate.
- f. No amendment to the Constitution shall alter or destroy its basic structure or foundational principles, and the Imperial Court shall have the authority to invalidate any such amendment.

Statute 42. Removal and Impeachment of Imperial Justices—

- a. An Imperial Justice of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, including the Chief Imperial Justice, shall not be removed from office except by an order of the President of the Union passed after an address by each House of Parliament supported by a majority of the total membership of that House and by not less than two-thirds of the members present and voting.
- b. Such an address must be presented to the President in the same session and must be for proven misbehavior or incapacity of the Justice concerned.
- c. The process for investigation, inquiry, and presentation of the address shall be governed by law and may include a Judicial Oversight Committee constituted by Parliament for this purpose.

- d. Pending inquiry, the President may, on the recommendation of the Chief Imperial Justice or a majority of the senior-most Justices of the Imperial Court, suspend the concerned Justice from office.
- e. A Justice who is under investigation shall have the right to be informed of the charges against them and to present a defense in accordance with the principles of natural justice.
- f. The order of removal, once issued, shall be final and shall disqualify the removed Justice from holding any constitutional office in the Union thereafter.

PART VII
THE STATES

Abstract

“This Part defines the structure, status, powers, and responsibilities of the constituent States within the TREDT Union. It affirms the federal character of the Union, whereby each State retains autonomy in matters assigned to it under the Constitution, while participating in the shared governance of the Union. This Part provides for the organization of State governments, including their Executive, Legislature, and Judiciary, and outlines the relationship between the States and the Union. It ensures the protection of State boundaries, identities, and internal governance through constitutional guarantees. The States, as equal partners in the Union, are empowered to legislate on matters of local concern, maintain public order, and manage their resources in accordance with the Constitution. This Part also addresses the admission, formation, alteration, and reorganization of States and safeguards their democratic functioning within the federal framework of TREDT.”

CHAPTER I THE EXECUTIVE

Abstract

“This Chapter outlines the structure, powers, and responsibilities of the Executive branch of government in each State of the TREDT Union. Each State shall have its own Executive, comprising a State Head (known as the Governor of the State), a Council of Ministers, and a Chief Minister as the head of government. The Executive of a State shall function in accordance with the Constitution, uphold the laws made by the State Legislature, and ensure the peace, welfare, and administration of the State. While the Governor represents the constitutional authority of the Union at the State level, the day-to-day administration shall be conducted by the elected government, which is collectively responsible to the State Legislature. This Chapter defines the appointment, powers, tenure, and duties of the Governor, the Chief Minister, and the State Ministers.”

Article 43. The Governor of a State—

- a) There shall be a Governor for each State of the TREDT Union, who shall be elected directly by the NPCs of the State.
- b) The Governor shall be the Head of the State and the State Government and shall exercise the executive powers of the State either directly or through officers subordinate to them, in accordance with this Constitution.
- c) No person shall be eligible for appointment as Governor unless they—
 - i) Are a member or NPC of the TREDT Union, and
 - ii) Have attained 4 or less in the Union Criminal Level.
- d) The Governor shall not be a member of either House of Parliament or of the Legislature of any other State rather than his own, and shall not hold any other office of profit.
- e) The Governor shall hold office for a term of one year from the date on which they enter upon office.
- f) A Governor may resign at any time by writing under their hand addressed to the President of the Union, or be ousted from office by a no confidence vote in the state assembly.

Article 44: Powers and Functions of the Governor—

- a. The Governor shall be the head of the Government of the State and shall exercise the executive authority on behalf of the people of the State in accordance with the Constitution.
- b. The Governor shall—
 - i) lead the Council of Ministers of the State,
 - ii) formulate and execute State policies and legislation on advice of the Council of Ministers of State,
 - iii) prepare and present the State Budget before the State Legislature on the advice of the Council of Ministers of State,
 - iv) oversee administration, law and order, and implementation of State and Union laws within the State on the advice of the Council of Ministers of State,
 - v) Coordinate with the Union Government and other States on intergovernmental matters on the advice of the Council of Ministers of State.
- c. The Governor shall be collectively responsible to the Legislature of the State and shall retain office so long as they enjoy the confidence of the State Legislature.
- d. All executive actions shall be expressed in the name of the Governor only, and they shall make rules for the convenient transaction of business of the State Government.
- e. The Governor may allocate portfolios among Ministers, preside over Cabinet meetings, and supervise the functioning of the Council of Ministers.

Article 45: The Council of Ministers of the State—

- a. There shall be a Council of Ministers in each State to aid and advice the Governor in the exercise of their functions, except where the Governor is required to act in their individual discretion under this Constitution.
- b. The Council of Ministers shall consist of Ministers appointed by the Governor from among the members of the State Legislature. The total number of Ministers shall be determined by law, subject to reasonable limits based on the size of the Legislature.
- c. The Governor shall allocate portfolios among the Ministers and may designate one or more of them as Deputy Governors, who shall assist the Governor in the discharge of governmental duties.
- d. The Council of Ministers shall be collectively responsible to the State Legislature. All decisions of the Council shall be recorded, and the Governor shall ensure they are executed efficiently and constitutionally.

- e. A Minister shall hold office at the pleasure of the Governor and shall vacate office—
 - i) upon resignation,
 - ii) upon ceasing to be a member of the State Legislature, or
 - iii) If removed by the Governor in accordance with the rules of procedure and the constitutional conventions of the State.
- f. The Governor shall inform the State Legislature periodically of the collective decisions and progress of the Council of Ministers, ensuring transparency and accountability.

CHAPTER II THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Abstract

“This Chapter outlines the composition, structure, powers, and functioning of the Legislature in each State of the TREDT Union. The State Legislature shall be the law-making authority for the State and shall represent the will of its people through elected representatives. Each State may have a unicameral or bicameral legislature, as provided by law, consisting of a Legislative Assembly (Lower House) and, where applicable, a Legislative Council (Upper House).”

The Legislature shall have the power to make laws for the State on subjects enumerated in the State List and the Concurrent List, subject to the provisions of this Constitution. It shall also oversee the functioning of the State Executive and approve the State Budget. The Chapter provides for the constitution, duration, qualifications, sessions, procedures, privileges, and legislative process within the State Legislature, ensuring representative democracy and responsible governance at the State level.”

Article 46: Charter of the State Legislature—

- a. Every State of the TREDT Union shall have a Legislature to enact laws for the peace, order, and good governance of the State in accordance with this Constitution.
- b. The Legislature of a State may be—
 - i) Unicameral, consisting of a Legislative Assembly, or
 - ii) Bicameral, consisting of a Legislative Assembly and a Legislative Council,
 - iii) As may be provided by law enacted by the State Legislature and approved by the Union Parliament.
- c. The Legislative Assembly shall consist of members directly elected by the people of the State through universal adult suffrage, in accordance with law.
- d. The Legislative Council, where established, shall be a permanent body not subject to dissolution, with one-third of its members retiring every two years. Its composition, mode of election, and qualifications shall be as prescribed by law.
- e. The Legislature shall have exclusive competence to make laws on matters in the State List and concurrent competence on matters in the Concurrent List, subject to the supremacy of Union law.
- f. The Legislature shall have the power to summon debate, enact, amend, and repeal laws, scrutinize the State Executive, and control public expenditure through the annual budget and appropriation bills.

Article 47: Composition of the Legislative Assembly and Council

a. Legislative Assembly (Lower House):

- i) The Legislative Assembly of a State shall consist of members directly elected from territorial constituencies through universal adult suffrage.
- ii) The total number of members shall be determined by law, based on population, territorial integrity, and administrative convenience.
- iii) Each constituency shall elect one member through free and fair elections held in accordance with Union Electoral Codex.
- iv) The term of the Assembly shall be one year from the date of its first sitting unless sooner dissolved by the TREDT Legislative House.

b. Legislative Council (Upper House):

- i) A State may establish a Legislative Council through law approved by the Union Parliament.
- ii) The total number of members in the Council shall not exceed one-third of the total number of members in the Legislative Assembly.
- iii) Members of the Legislative Council shall be elected or nominated from diverse constituencies including:
 - 1) Members elected by local bodies,
 - 2) Graduates and teachers,
 - 3) Members elected by the Legislative Assembly, and
 - 4) Persons nominated by the Governor with expertise in literature, science, art, cooperative movements, or public service.
- iv) The Legislative Council shall be a continuing body, with one-third of its members retiring every year.
- v) A member of the Council shall hold office for a term of one year unless otherwise prescribed by law.

c. The structure, manner of election, and qualifications for membership of both Houses shall be regulated by State law, subject to the provisions of this Constitution.

Article 48: Qualifications and Disqualifications for Membership of the State Legislature—

a. Qualifications for Membership

A person shall be qualified to be chosen as a member of the State Legislature if they—

- i. are a citizen of the TREDT Union;
- ii. have attained—
- iii. 1. the criminal record of 3, in the case of the Legislative Assembly;
- iv. 2. The criminal record of 2, in the case of the Legislative Council (if applicable);
- v. Possess such other qualifications as may be prescribed by law made by the State Legislature or by the Union Parliament applicable to States.

b. Disqualifications for Membership

A person shall be disqualified for being chosen as, and for being, a member of the State Legislature if they—

- i. are of unsound mind and so declared by a competent court;
- ii. are an un-discharged insolvent;
- iii. are not a citizen of the TREDT Union or have voluntarily acquired the citizenship of a foreign State;
- iv. are so disqualified under any law made by the Legislature of the State or the Union relating to corrupt practices, electoral offences, defection, or criminal conviction involving moral turpitude.

c. Decision on Disqualifications

If any question arises as to whether a member has become subject to disqualification, the matter shall be referred to the Governor of the State, who shall decide after obtaining the opinion of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, whose decision shall be final and binding.

Article 49: Sessions, Summoning, and Dissolution of the State Legislature—

- a. The Governor of the State shall from time to time summon each House of the State Legislature to meet at such time and place as they think fit, but six months shall not intervene between the last sitting in one session and the first sitting in the next.
- b. The Governor shall address the first session of the State Legislature after each general election to the Legislative Assembly and at the commencement of each calendar year, outlining the policy and legislative agenda of the Government.
- c. The Governor may, from time to time—
 - i. prorogue either House or both Houses of the Legislature,
 - ii. OMITTED.
- d. The Legislative Council, if it exists, shall not be subject to dissolution, but one-third of its members shall retire every year, and their seats shall be filled in accordance with law.
- e. In the event of a constitutional breakdown or emergency, the Union may assume legislative powers of the State temporarily, as prescribed under Union emergency provisions, and the term of the Legislative Assembly may be extended or suspended accordingly.

CHAPTER III

LEGISLATIVE POWER OF THE GOVERNOR

Abstract

“This Chapter outlines the legislative authority exercised by the Governor of a State in their capacity as the head of the elected State Government. As the principal executive of the State, the Governor plays a vital role in the legislative process: introducing bills, giving or withholding assent, and managing emergency law-making procedures. This Chapter defines the Governor’s relationship with the State Legislature, their powers regarding assent to legislation, return or reservation of Bills, and the promulgation of ordinances when the Legislature is not in session. The Governor’s legislative functions ensure that the State’s governance remains efficient, constitutional, and responsive to the needs of its people, while upholding the federal framework of the TREDT Union.”

Article 50: Introduction and Assent of Bills by the Governor—

- a. A Bill may be introduced in the State Legislature by a Minister or by any member of the Legislature, in accordance with the rules of procedure of the respective House.
- b. No Bill or amendment shall be introduced or moved in the State Legislature without the prior recommendation of the Governor if it—
 - i) imposes or varies any tax;
 - ii) alters the boundaries of local bodies or administrative divisions;
 - iii) affects the financial interests of the State;
 - iv) Involves the creation or reorganization of government departments or offices under the State.
- c. When a Bill has been passed by both Houses of the State Legislature, or by the Legislative Assembly in the case of a unicameral legislature, it shall be presented to the Governor for assent.
- d. The Governor shall declare either—
 - i) assent to the Bill,
 - ii) withhold assent, or
 - iii) Return the Bill (if it is not a Money Bill) with a message requesting reconsideration.
- e. If the Bill is passed again by the Legislature with or without amendment, and presented again to the Governor, the Governor shall not withhold assent.

- f. The Governor may, in their discretion, reserve certain Bills for the consideration of the President of the Union if the Bill—
 - i) is of national importance,
 - ii) conflicts with Union law,
 - iii) affects the powers of the Union or another State, or
 - iv) Relates to property, revenue, or constitutional matters beyond the competence of the State Legislature.

Article 51: Ordinance-Making Power of the Governor—

- a. When the State Legislature is not in session and the Governor is satisfied that circumstances exist which render it necessary to take immediate action, the Governor may promulgate an Ordinance having the force of law within the territory of the State.
- b. An Ordinance may be issued on any subject on whom the State Legislature has the power to make laws, provided that such Ordinance does not contravene any provision of this Constitution or override Fundamental Rights.
- c. Every such Ordinance—
 - i) shall be laid before the State Legislature when it reconvenes, and
 - ii) Shall cease to operate at the expiration of six weeks from the reassembly of the Legislature, unless earlier approved by a resolution of the House (or both Houses, where applicable).
- d. The Governor may withdraw the Ordinance at any time before its expiry or replacement by an Act of the Legislature.
- e. No Ordinance shall be issued to amend or repeal provisions of the Constitution, nor shall an Ordinance be re-promulgated with substantially the same content without material change, except under extraordinary and legally justifiable conditions.
- f. The power to promulgate Ordinances shall be used sparingly and only in exceptional cases where legislative delay would cause grave harm to public welfare, safety, or constitutional order.

CHAPTER IV THE HIGH COURTS OF THE STATES

Abstract

“This Part establishes the High Courts as the highest judicial authorities within the territories of the individual States of the TREDT Union. The High Courts are entrusted with upholding the rule of law, safeguarding constitutional rights, and administering justice in accordance with the laws of the State and the Union.

Each State shall have a High Court with jurisdiction over its territory, or two or more States may share a common High Court, as provided by law. The High Court exercises original, appellate, writ and supervisory jurisdiction over all courts and tribunals within its territory, except those specifically excluded by law.

This Part defines the composition, powers, appointment, qualifications, tenure, and removal of High Court judges. It also safeguards the independence of the judiciary, ensuring the separation of powers and the integrity of the State's legal framework.”

Article 52: Statutes of High Courts—

- a. There shall be a High Court for each State of the TREDT Union. Two or more States may, by agreement and with the approval of the Union Parliament, establish a common High Court having jurisdiction over the territories of those States.
- b. The High Court shall be a court of record and shall have all the powers of such a court, including the power to punish for contempt of itself and of subordinate courts.
- c. Each High Court shall consist of—
 - i) a Chief Justice of the High Court, and
 - ii) Such number of other Judges as may be determined by law from time to time.
- d. Judges of the High Court shall be appointed by the President of the Union, in consultation with—
 - i) the Governor of the State,
 - ii) the Chief Justice of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, and
 - iii) Such judicial authorities as may be prescribed by law.
- e. Every Judge of a High Court shall hold office until, unless—
 - i) they resign in writing addressed to the President, or
 - ii) Are removed under the provisions of this Constitution.
- f. The High Court shall sit at the capital of the State unless otherwise provided by law or directed by the Chief Justice of the High Court with the approval of the Governor.

- g. The salaries, privileges, conditions of service, and post-retirement restrictions of Judges shall be determined by law and shall not be altered to their disadvantage after appointment.

Article 53: Jurisdiction and Powers of the High Courts—

- a. Every High Court shall have jurisdiction over the territory of the State for which it is established, or over such territories as may be assigned to it by law in the case of a common High Court.
- b. The High Court shall have the following powers and jurisdictions:
- i) Original Jurisdiction
 - The High Court shall have original jurisdiction—
 - 1) to issue writs in the nature of Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, Prohibition, Certiorari, and Quo Warranto for the enforcement of Fundamental Rights and for any other purpose as may be provided by law;
 - 2) in civil and criminal matters as specified under the laws of the State or Union;
 - 3) in matters arising under constitutional interpretation relating exclusively to the State.
 - ii) Appellate Jurisdiction
 - The High Court shall have appellate jurisdiction—
 - 1) over civil and criminal decisions of subordinate courts and tribunals within the State;
 - 2) in cases involving interpretation of State or Union law as it applies to the State;
 - 3) in matters prescribed by State or Union legislation.
 - iii) Supervisory Jurisdiction
 - The High Court shall have supervisory powers over all courts and tribunals functioning within its jurisdiction, excluding those expressly excluded by or under law.
 - iv) Administrative Powers
 - The High Court shall have control over the posting, promotion, and disciplinary matters of the judicial service of the State, subject to law and in consultation with the Governor and the State Public Service Commission.
 - v) Advisory Role
 - The High Court may provide legal opinions to the Governor or State Executive on questions of constitutional or legal importance, if so requested, provided such advice is non-binding and not sub judice.
- c. No law or action of the State Government shall be immune from review by the High Court if such law or action contravenes the provisions of this Constitution.

PART VIII THE UNION TERRITORIES

Abstract

“This Part provides for the governance, administration, and constitutional status of the Union Territories within the TREDT Union. Unlike the States, which enjoy a measure of legislative and executive autonomy, the Union Territories are regions that are directly administered by the Union Government, either fully or with limited local self-government as provided by law.

Each Union Territory shall be governed in accordance with this Constitution, and where applicable, special provisions may be made for their governance, including the establishment of a Legislative Assembly, a Council of Ministers, or an Administrator appointed by the President of the Union. The extent of legislative and executive powers in a Union Territory may vary depending on its classification and constitutional notification.

This Part also allows the Union Parliament to make laws applicable to Union Territories, to reorganize or integrate them with States, and to create tailored governance mechanisms in the national interest or for reasons of strategic, cultural, or historical importance.”

Article 54: Status and Administration of Union Territories—

- a. The territories specified by law as Union Territories shall form a part of the TREDT Union but shall not be regarded as States, unless otherwise provided by this Constitution or by an Act of the Union Parliament.
- b. Every Union Territory shall be administered by the President of the Union, acting through an Administrator appointed by the President. The Administrator shall act under the general control and direction of the President and shall be the executive head of the Union Territory.
- c. The Union Parliament may by law—
 - i. establish a Legislative Assembly for a Union Territory,
 - ii. provide for the constitution of a Council of Ministers with a Governor or Chief Executive,
 - iii. define the extent of legislative and executive powers of such bodies,
 - iv. Modify the application of provisions of this Constitution to suit the unique governance needs of each Territory.
- d. In Union Territories having a Legislative Assembly, laws may be made on subjects in the State List and Concurrent List, subject to the overriding power of the Union Parliament.
- e. In matters where no local legislature exists, the Union Parliament shall have exclusive authority to make laws for the Union Territory, and such laws shall have the same force and effect as if made for a State.

- f. The President may, by executive order, allocate business to the Administrator and authorize them to make rules and regulations in specified matters, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.
- g. The Union may, by law, reorganize, integrate, or convert a Union Territory into a State or merge it with an existing State, following appropriate consultation with the affected authorities and approval of Parliament.

Article 55: Union Territories Legislature—

- a. In Union Territories where a Legislative Assembly is not established by law, the Union Parliament shall exercise exclusive legislative authority over all subjects in the Union List, State List, and Concurrent List for that Territory.
- b. The Union Parliament may enact laws—
 - i) applicable specifically to one or more Union Territories, or
 - ii) Applicable to both Union Territories and States, with modifications as necessary for the governance of Union Territories.
- c. Such legislation shall be deemed valid even if it relates to subjects normally within the legislative competence of States, and shall prevail over any local rules, orders, or customs to the contrary.
- d. In Union Territories where a Legislative Assembly has been established, the extent of its legislative powers shall be determined by law, but shall always remain subordinate to the overriding authority of the Union Parliament.
- e. The President of the Union may issue Regulations for the peace, progress, and good governance of any Union Territory where the Legislature is absent or dissolved and such Regulations shall have the force of law.
- f. All laws made by Parliament or by Presidential Regulation for Union Territories shall be administered by the Administrator of the Territory, subject to the directions of the President.

Article 56: Union Territories Judiciary—

- a. The judicial authority in all Union Territories shall vest in such courts and tribunals as may be established by the Union Parliament or by Presidential Regulation, but shall function under the appellate and supervisory jurisdiction of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- b. The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT shall be the highest judicial authority for all Union Territories and shall exercise—
 - i) original jurisdiction in matters concerning the enforcement of Fundamental Rights and constitutional questions arising within any Union Territory,
 - ii) appellate jurisdiction over all decisions of courts in Union Territories, and
 - iii) Supervisory jurisdiction over the functioning of all subordinate courts and judicial bodies within such territories.
- c. The Union Parliament may by law—
 - i) establish or designate District Courts, Magistrate Courts, and Special Tribunals for Union Territories;
 - ii) define the powers, composition, and jurisdiction of such courts; and
 - iii) Provide for the qualifications and terms of service of judges and officers presiding over them.
- d. In Union Territories having no High Court of their own, the jurisdiction of an existing High Court of a nearby State may be extended to that Territory by law, subject to such modifications as may be necessary.
- e. All judicial appointments, transfers, and disciplinary proceedings in Union Territory courts shall be made by or under the authority of the President of the Union, in consultation with the Imperial Court of Justice where applicable.
- f. The judicial process in Union Territories shall uphold the same standards of independence, fairness, and constitutional supremacy as mandated for the judiciary in the States.

PART IX THE CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES

Abstract

“This Part provides for the recognition, regulation, and governance of Co-operative Societies within the TREDT Union. Co-operative Societies shall be considered as voluntary, democratic, member-driven institutions formed to promote the economic, social, or cultural interests of their members.

The Constitution recognizes Co-operative Societies as legal entities that may operate across States, Union Territories, or within single administrative regions, subject to compliance with constitutional provisions and statutory regulation.

This Part lays down the framework for—

- Registration and Licensing of Co-operative Societies,
- Governing principles of internal democracy, accountability, and member control,
- Supervision and audit,
- Merger, division, and winding up, and
- Powers of the Union and States to regulate such entities while ensuring their autonomy.

All Co-operative Societies shall function under a license system, with licenses granted by authorities designated by law, ensuring transparency and legal recognition of their existence and operations.”

Article 57: Registration and Licensing of Co-operative Societies—

- a. A Co-operative Society may be formed by any group of individuals voluntarily associating for mutual economic, social, or cultural benefit, in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution and applicable laws.
- b. No Co-operative Society shall be recognized as a legal entity unless it is—
 - i. registered under a law enacted by the Union Parliament or a State Legislature, and
 - ii. Issued a valid License by the designated Registrar or Licensing Authority constituted under such law.
- c. The License shall specify—
 - i. the name and principal area of operation of the society,
 - ii. the objectives and sector of activity,
 - iii. the class or type of society (e.g., credit, housing, farming, industrial, multi-purpose),
 - iv. The conditions of operation, including reporting and compliance requirements.

- d. The Licensing Authority shall ensure that the society—
 - i) has a democratic structure based on one member, one vote,
 - ii) maintains proper accounts and records,
 - iii) adheres to principles of equity, transparency, and autonomy,
 - iv) Complies with such financial and operational norms as may be prescribed by law.
- e. A license may be—
 - i) renewed upon application and satisfactory compliance,
 - ii) suspended for breach of legal or regulatory conditions, or
 - iii) Revoked if the society is found to be engaged in fraud, mismanagement, or activities contrary to law or public interest.
- f. The decision of the Licensing Authority shall be subject to review and appeal before a tribunal or judicial body established under this Constitution or under the law regulating Co-operative Societies.

PART X
CHARTER, UNION RECOGNITION AND PRIVILEGES TO ORGANIZATIONS

Abstract

“This Part provides the constitutional foundation for granting Charters and Legal Privileges to recognized organizations, companies, and societies operating within the TREDT Union. It establishes that all entities seeking formal recognition or special privileges under the laws of the Union must obtain a Charter under the framework established by the Charter Regulation Act, 2025, and the Regulating Act, 2nd Amendment Bill 2024 comply with the legal, financial, and ethical standards set forth therein.

Only those organizations that meet the eligibility, approval, and compliance requirements as outlined by Union legislation—including approval by both Houses of Parliament and the Imperial Court of Justice—shall be entitled to operate under the status of a Chartered Entity of the Union.

This Part also recognizes the role of the Charter Oversight Commission (COC) in maintaining transparency, accountability, and the continued integrity of all chartered organizations in the Union.”

Article 57: Grant of Charters to Organizations—

- a. No company, society, guild, or organization shall be entitled to the legal status, protections, or privileges of a Chartered Entity unless it has been issued a Charter of Operation in accordance with Union law.
- b. The granting of a Charter shall require—
 - i. a two-thirds (2/3) majority approval by the Council of States of Union,
 - ii. a one-third (1/3) majority approval by the House of Representatives of the Members of Union, and
 - iii. Final judicial confirmation by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- c. The organization must be certified by the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA) for financial legitimacy, market conduct, and legal compliance.

Article 58: Licensing, Compliance, and Privileges—

- a. Every Chartered Entity shall be issued a Charter License, detailing the scope of permitted operations, subject to annual renewal and audit.
- b. Such entities shall—
 - i) maintain a minimum operational presence within the TREDT Union,
 - ii) submit annual financial audits to the TTA,
 - iii) comply with the TREDT Trading Conduct Code, and
 - iv) Uphold ethical business practices and transparency.
- c. A Charter may be suspended, revoked, or reviewed by the TTA or the Charter Oversight Commission upon evidence of fraud, misrepresentation, or violation of national laws.

d. Chartered Entities shall be entitled to privileges such as:

- i) Union-wide legal recognition,
- ii) eligibility for state contracting and grants,
- iii) protections under economic security laws,
- iv) Standing to petition before Union courts on matters relating to their Charter rights.

Article 59: Union Recognition—

- a) Union Recognition is the formal legal status conferred upon trusted bodies, societies, or companies that work in the name of the TREDT Union. Recognition is granted only upon:
 - i) A unanimous vote in both Houses of the Legislative House,
 - ii) Approval by the President and Cabinet, and
 - iii) Judicial ratification by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

Article 58: Powers of Recognized Entities—

- a) Recognized entities may be granted authority over:
 - i) Military operations,
 - ii) Diplomatic functions,
 - iii) Judicial administration,
 - iv) Financial management, and
 - v) Colonial or territorial administration,
 - vi) within Union-acknowledged jurisdictions—subject to oversight, law, and accountability.

Article 60: Levels of Charter—

- a) There shall be five formal levels of Union Charters:
 - I. Royal Charter of Union – highest level; grants full powers, requires unanimous legislative approval + President + Court ratification.
 - II. Charter of Union – grants major but partial powers; requires majority in the houses + President + Court.
 - III. Charter of House – sectorial/regional powers; requires majority in the Council of States + President.

- IV. Charter of Governor – local administrative/financial powers; granted by a State Governor with legislative and judicial endorsement.
- V. Charter of Magistrate – limited local governance powers; granted by local authorities and ratified by the Imperial Court.

Article 61: Oversight, Review, and Revocation—

- i) Recognized entities shall be—
 - i) Accountable to the TREDT Legislative House,
 - ii) Subject to judicial review by the Imperial Court,
 - iii) Revocable by unanimous legislative vote or judicial recommendation following breach of law or charter.

Article 62: Eligibility, Compliance, and Enforcement for Charter Approval

A. Financial and Operational Eligibility

- a. Any entity applying for a Charter under the authority of the TREDT Union shall fulfill the following mandatory financial criteria:
 - i. Maintain a minimum verified net worth of Fifty Million Emeralds (50M EMD).
 - ii. Demonstrate a stable market capitalization over a continuous period of at least one (1) year, as certified by the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA).
 - iii. Present audited financial records, including Tax Compliance Certificates issued by the Tax and Revenue Ministry of Union.
- b. The entity must also provide documentary proof of:
 - i) A certified Business Continuity Plan,
 - ii) Workforce stability, and
 - iii) Full compliance with Union labor laws and employment regulations.
- c. No entity shall be eligible for a Charter if it—
 - i) is blacklisted by any Union authority or tribunal,
 - ii) is under active investigation for fraud, embezzlement, or corruption, or
 - iii) has associations with any entity involved in financial misconduct or unlawful economic activity.

B. Compliance Obligations of Chartered Entities

- a. Every entity granted a Union Charter shall:
 - i) Submit an annual financial audit report to the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA),
 - ii) Maintain at least 25% of its operational footprint within the territory of the TREDT Union, and
 - iii) Fully comply with the TREDT Trading Conduct Code, including ethical business practices, transparency standards, and fair labor policies.

- b. Chartered entities shall be subject to periodic review, inspection, and regulatory oversight by the TTA and such other bodies as may be designated by Union law.

C. Penalties for Misrepresentation and Misconduct

- a. Any entity found to have committed fraudulent misrepresentation in its Charter application shall face:
 - i) Immediate revocation of its Charter,
 - ii) A minimum monetary penalty of Ten Million Emeralds (10M EMD), and
 - iii) Suspension of all business, commercial, or trading licenses issued under Union or State authority.
- b. Such entity shall be permanently blacklisted from applying for any future Charter or license under the TREDT Union framework.

D. Enforcement by the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA)

- a. The TTA shall have the authority to:
 - i) Suspend, investigate, or review any Chartered Entity suspected of:
 - – Financial misconduct,
 - – Market manipulation, or
 - – Violations of Union economic security laws.
- b. The TTA shall issue enforcement orders with full binding effect, subject to appeal before a Tribunal or the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, as prescribed by law.

PART XI

TREDT TRADING ADMINISTRATION & CODE OF CONDUCT

Abstract

“This Part establishes the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA) as the central regulatory authority for economic governance, trade oversight, financial licensing, and commercial ethics within the TREDT Union. It also lays down the enforceable TREDT Trading Conduct Code, which governs the lawful and ethical behavior of all commercial entities operating within the Union’s territory or under Union-recognized charters.

The TTA shall function as an autonomous statutory body, constitutionally empowered to regulate, inspect, audit, and sanction both public and private entities in accordance with Union trade laws, charter regulations, and constitutional economic mandates. It ensures economic security, combats market manipulation, and promotes transparent and fair commerce.

This Part also grants the TTA the power to license entities, enforce sanctions, conduct investigations, and issue policy circulars binding on all registered commercial actors in the TREDT Union.”

Article 63: Establishment and Powers of the TREDT Trading Administration—

- a. There shall be established a statutory and constitutionally recognized authority known as the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA), which shall function as the principal economic and commercial regulator of the TREDT Union.
- b. The TTA shall be an autonomous public body, operating under the oversight of the Union Ministry of Trade and Economic Affairs, with functional independence guaranteed by this Constitution.
- c. The primary functions of the TTA shall include—
 - i. Licensing and regulation of commercial, financial, and chartered entities within the Union;
 - ii. Monitoring and enforcement of the TREDT Trading Conduct Code and other commercial statutes;
 - iii. Inspection and audit of trade practices, market operations, and financial compliance;
 - iv. Collection and analysis of trade data, market intelligence, and financial disclosures;
 - v. Protection of Union Economic Security, including identifying threats posed by fraud, monopoly, or foreign subversion;
 - vi. Certification of entities applying for Union Charters, including verification of net worth, tax compliance, and labor practices.
- d. The TTA shall have the power to—
 - i. Grant, suspend, or revoke licenses and trading permissions for commercial actors;
 - ii. Impose penalties, including monetary fines, suspensions, or blacklisting;
 - iii. Refer matters to the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT or the Charter Oversight Commission for constitutional review or

- prosecution;
- iv. Issue binding regulations and policy guidelines, subject to Union legislative review.
- e. The Chairperson and Members of the TTA shall be appointed by the President of the Union, upon the recommendation of the Union Economic Affairs Committee and confirmation by both Houses of the TREDT Legislative House.
- f. The TTA shall submit an Annual Report to the Union Parliament detailing its regulatory actions, compliance evaluations, and economic recommendations, to ensure transparency and legislative accountability.

Article 64: The TREDT Trading Conduct Code and Enforcement Mechanism—

- a. All entities operating within the jurisdiction of the TREDT Union—whether public, private, foreign, or chartered—shall be bound by the TREDT Trading Conduct Code (TTCC), as enacted and enforced by the TREDT Trading Administration (TTA).
- b. The TTCC shall serve as the official code of commercial ethics and regulatory compliance, and shall include, but not be limited to, the following core principles:
 - i. Fair Market Practices – Prohibition of price manipulation, monopoly behavior, insider trading, and deceptive advertising;
 - ii. Transparency – Mandatory disclosure of corporate ownership, financials, audit reports, and major transactions;
 - iii. Labor and Social Responsibility – Compliance with Union labor laws, fair wages, safe working conditions, and non-discriminatory hiring;
 - iv. Environmental Accountability – Prohibition of industrial practices harmful to the Union’s environment, with required sustainability declarations;
 - v. Prohibition of Corruption – Zero tolerance for bribery, fraud, embezzlement, or unlawful political financing.
- c. The TTA shall have the authority to enforce the TTCC through:
 - i. Inspections, compliance audits, and investigations initiated upon complaint or suspicion;
 - ii. Issuance of notices, warnings, cease-and-desist orders, and public blacklisting;
 - iii. Imposition of civil and criminal penalties, including fines, license suspension, and charter revocation;
 - iv. Referring serious breaches to the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT for prosecution under national economic security laws.

- d. Affected parties shall have the right to:
 - i. Appeal regulatory decisions of the TTA before an independent Economic Tribunal, and
 - ii. Seek constitutional review before the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT on questions of fundamental commercial rights and Union-level interpretation.
- e. All chartered entities, including those holding Royal or Federal Charters, shall be required to fully comply with the TTCC as a condition of their continued recognition, with enhanced scrutiny applied to entities exercising sovereign-like powers under Article II of the Charter Regulation Act.
- f. Parliament shall review and update the TTCC periodically, based on recommendations submitted by the TTA, the Charter Oversight Commission, and relevant Union Ministries.

PART XII
UNION ELECTIONS COMMISSION & MODEL CODE OF CONDUCT (ELECTORAL CODEX)

Abstract

“This Part establishes the Union Elections Commission (UEC) as the independent constitutional authority responsible for the conduct, supervision, and regulation of elections across the TREDT Union. It ensures the free and fair election of representatives to the House of Representatives of the Members of Union, the Council of States of TREDT, State Legislatures, and such other elective bodies as may be created under Union law.

The UEC shall function autonomously, immune from executive or legislative interference, and shall maintain the integrity of democratic processes through oversight of electoral rolls, political party registration, campaign finance transparency, and the enforcement of the Union Model Code of Conduct (UMCC).

The Commission shall also oversee referendums, plebiscites, and internal elections of chartered or constitutionally recognized bodies where such authority is delegated by law or treaty.”

Article 65: Establishment and Powers of the Union Elections Commission—

- a. There shall be constituted an independent authority known as the Union Elections Commission (UEC), which shall be responsible for the superintendence, direction, and control of the preparation and conduct of all elections held under the authority of the TREDT Union.
- b. The UEC shall oversee—
 - i. elections to the House of Representatives of the Members of Union and the Council of States of TREDT,
 - ii. elections to State Legislatures,
 - iii. referendums, plebiscites, and special votes mandated by this Constitution or by Union law,
 - iv. Elections held by chartered bodies or autonomous authorities, where such responsibility is delegated by legislation or Charter.
- c. The UEC shall be composed of—
 - i. a Chief Election Commissioner of the Union, and
 - ii. such number of Election Commissioners as may be determined by law,
 - iii. Appointed by the President of the Union, on the advice of a collegium comprising the Chief Imperial Justice of TREDT, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the Leader of the Opposition.
- d. The Commission shall have the authority to—
 - i. prepare and update electoral rolls,
 - ii. determine and revise constituency boundaries,
 - iii. register and regulate political parties,
 - iv. monitor and enforce campaign finance transparency,

- v. supervise the conduct of candidates, political parties, and election agents,
 - vi. deploy election observers and security forces,
 - vii. Declare results and issue certificates of election.
- e. The Commission shall function independently, and its decisions shall be binding, subject only to judicial review by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- f. The Union Parliament shall enact laws to empower the Commission with investigative tools, financial autonomy, and enforcement mechanisms necessary to secure free, fair, and impartial elections across the Union.

Article 66: Union Model Code of Conduct—

- a. The Union Model Code of Conduct (UMCC) shall serve as the binding ethical and procedural framework governing the behavior of all political parties, candidates, agents, and electoral officials during the period of elections under the jurisdiction of the Union Elections Commission (UEC).
- b. The UMCC shall apply to:
 - i) General elections to the House of Representatives of the Members of Union and the Council of States of TREDT,
 - ii) State Legislative elections,
 - iii) Union referendums, special ballots, and plebiscites,
 - iv) Chartered body elections, if expressly delegated under Charter or by Union law.
- c) The Code shall enforce the following core principles:
 - i) Non-discrimination and equal opportunity for all candidates and parties,
 - ii) Prohibition on the use of state resources, government vehicles, public funds, or institutions for partisan purposes,
 - iii) Prohibition of hate speech, personal attacks, religious or caste-based appeals, or incitement to violence,
 - iv) Transparency in campaign finance, donation disclosures, and expenditure limits,
 - v) Respect for the electoral machinery, peaceful conduct of campaigns, and cooperation with election observers.
- d) All political parties and candidates shall submit a signed undertaking to abide by the UMCC as a precondition for contesting elections.
- e) The Union Elections Commission shall have the power to:
 - i) Censure, suspend, or disqualify candidates or parties for violations of the UMCC,
 - ii) Impose monetary penalties,
 - iii) Initiate legal proceedings or refer matters to the Imperial Court of Justice or the State High Court, as appropriate.
- f) The UMCC shall have the force of law and may be amended, expanded, or refined by the Union Elections Commission in consultation with the Union Parliament.
- g) Any person or party aggrieved by actions under this Code shall have the right to seek judicial review before the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

PART XIII

EMERGENCY PROVISIONS

Abstract

“This Part defines the constitutional framework for the proclamation, governance, and oversight of emergencies within the TREDT Union. Emergency provisions may be invoked only in situations of grave threat to national security, constitutional order, public safety, or economic stability, and must always remain subject to strict legislative, judicial, and temporal limitations.

Emergencies may be classified into the following categories:

Union Emergency (National Emergency): Threats to the sovereignty, unity, or security of the TREDT Union.

State Emergency (Constitutional Breakdown): Failure of constitutional machinery in any State.

Financial Emergency: Threat to the financial stability or credit of the Union or any part thereof.

This Part outlines the procedures for proclaiming emergencies, the temporary suspension or limitation of certain rights, the reallocation of legislative and executive powers, and the mechanisms for legislative ratification and judicial review to prevent abuse.”

Article 67: Proclamation of Union Emergency—

- a. The President of the Union may, by proclamation, declare a Union Emergency if satisfied that the security, sovereignty, unity, or integrity of the TREDT Union or any part thereof is threatened by—
 - i) external aggression,
 - ii) armed rebellion,
 - iii) large-scale internal disorder, or
 - iv) Any existential threat to constitutional governance or national unity.
- b. A Proclamation of Union Emergency—
 - i) May be issued only after receiving a written recommendation from the Union Cabinet, chaired by the Governor of the Central House,
 - ii) Shall be laid before both Houses of the TREDT Legislative House within forty-eight hours,
 - iii) Shall cease to operate unless approved by two-thirds of the total membership of each House within seven days.
- c. Upon such approval, the Union Emergency shall remain in force for a period not exceeding six months, and may be extended by further resolutions of the same majority for like periods, provided that—
 - i) No extension shall exceed a total duration of three years, and
 - ii) Each extension must be justified by a detailed report from the Union Cabinet and reviewed by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

- d. During the period of Union Emergency—
 - i) The Union Parliament shall have the power to legislate on all subjects, including those in the State List,
 - ii) The President may direct any State to follow such executive instructions as deemed necessary for restoring order and security,
 - iii) Certain Fundamental Rights under Part V may be suspended, except those relating to life, dignity, and protection from torture.
- e. The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT shall retain jurisdiction to review the legality, necessity, and proportionality of the Emergency Proclamation at any stage.
- f. The Proclamation may be revoked at any time by the President of the Union, and shall also terminate automatically if disapproved by either House of the TREDT Legislative House.

Article 68: Proclamation of State Emergency—

- a. The President of the Union may, by proclamation, declare a State Emergency in any State of the TREDT Union where they are satisfied that the constitutional machinery has failed, and the governance of the State cannot be carried on in accordance with the provisions of this Constitution.
- b. Such a Proclamation may be issued—
 - i) Upon the report of the Governor of the State, or
 - ii) Suo motu by the President if circumstances so warrant and are verified by the Union Cabinet and a preliminary review by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- c. The Proclamation of State Emergency must be—
 - i) laid before both Houses of the TREDT Legislative House within forty-eight hours, and
 - ii) Approved by a simple majority of both Houses within fourteen days, failing which it shall cease to operate.
- d. Upon such approval, the Proclamation may remain in force for a maximum period of six months, and may be extended for additional periods by resolution of both Houses, not exceeding one year in total unless:
 - i) A Union Emergency is simultaneously in operation, or
 - ii) The Imperial Court of Justice permits such extension on grounds of persistent instability and threat to constitutional order.
- e. During the operation of a State Emergency:
 - i) The Legislative Assembly of the State may be dissolved or suspended,
 - ii) The executive authority of the State shall be assumed by the President of the Union,
 - iii) The Union Parliament may legislate for the State and delegate powers to the Union Governor or other officers as necessary.

- f. Elections to the dissolved or suspended State Legislature shall be held as soon as normalcy is restored and in no case later than six months after revocation of the Proclamation, unless otherwise directed by the Imperial Court of Justice.
- g. Every Proclamation of State Emergency shall be subject to judicial review, and any abuse of authority may render the proclamation void and unconstitutional.

Article 69: Financial Emergency—

- a. The President of the Union may proclaim a Financial Emergency if satisfied that the financial stability or credit of the TREDT Union or of any part thereof is threatened or endangered.
- b. A Proclamation of Financial Emergency shall—
 - i) be issued only on the written recommendation of the Union Council of Ministers,
 - ii) be laid before both Houses of the TREDT Legislative House within seven days, and
 - iii) Shall cease to operate unless approved by a simple majority of the total membership of each House.
- c. Once approved, the Financial Emergency shall remain in force for a period of six months, and may be extended for further periods of six months at a time, subject to legislative approval.
 - i) There shall be no limit on the number of extensions, provided that the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT may review and revoke any extension found to be arbitrary, excessive, or unjustified.
- d. During the operation of a Financial Emergency, the Union Government may—
 - i) direct any State to observe such canons of financial propriety as it deems necessary;
 - ii) reduce salaries and allowances of persons serving under the Union or any State, including judges of High Courts and the Imperial Court of Justice, subject to constitutional safeguards;
 - iii) Review or restructure budgetary allocations, taxation policies, and public expenditures across the Union and its States.
- e. All executive and legislative actions taken under this Article shall be subject to judicial oversight by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT to ensure compliance with the principles of reasonableness, necessity, and constitutional fidelity.

CONSTITUTION OF TREDT UNION

- f. A Proclamation of Financial Emergency may be revoked at any time by the President of the Union and shall also terminate automatically if disapproved by either House of the TREDT Legislative House.

PART XIV
GOVERNMENT RECOGNISED PUBLICATION HOUSE
(TREDT Publications Society [Regd.])

Abstract

“This Part provides for the constitutional recognition, privileges, and oversight of the TREDT Publications Society (Regd.) as the officially recognized and authorized Publication House of the TREDT Union. It shall serve as the Union’s trusted agency for the publication, preservation, translation, and distribution of official documents, constitutional texts, legislative materials, judicial records, research works, and public education content.

The Society is empowered by Union Charter to operate as a semi-autonomous public institution, tasked with supporting legal transparency, civic education, and state documentation. It is granted special rights and responsibilities under the Constitution and relevant Union law to ensure authentic dissemination of information and uphold the intellectual and documentary legacy of the Union.”

Article 70: Official Gazette of TREDT Union, Priority of Publication, and Copyright Registration—

- a. The TREDT Publications Society (Regd.) shall publish and maintain the Official Gazette of the TREDT Union, which shall serve as the authentic legal record of—
 - i) all constitutional amendments, Acts, and legislative proceedings;
 - ii) orders, notifications, and rules issued by the Union Government and its Ministries;
 - iii) appointments, recognitions, and charters granted under Union authority;
 - iv) Judicial pronouncements and significant rulings of constitutional import.
- b. The Official Gazette shall be issued in both digital and print form, and publication in the Gazette shall be deemed as legal notice to the public under the laws of the TREDT Union.
- c. The TREDT Publications Society (Regd.) shall have first and exclusive publishing rights over all constitutional and chartered material, including foundational legal texts and official translations.
- d.
 - i) No other entity may publish, distribute, or claim authorship over such material without express authorization by the Society.
- e. For the purpose of protecting authorship and legal identity, the Constitution, Charter Regulation Act, and all foundational documents of the TREDT Union shall be registered in real life under the Copyright Act, 1957 (India) with the Registrar of Copyrights, Government of India.
 - i) The moral and creative copyright for these works shall rest with Soumya D. Das, who is recognized as the original author, drafter, and conceptual founder of the TREDT Constitutional Framework.
 - ii) All reproductions must credit Soumya D. Das as the author, and unauthorized commercial use shall constitute a violation of copyright and intellectual property law.

- f. The Society shall maintain a Register of Union Legal Publications, archiving all documents and versions published under the authority of the Union, with permanent preservation of constitutional and legal records.

PART XV
TREDT SMP

Abstract

“This Part establishes the TREDT SMP as the official, secure, and constitutionally recognized virtual platform for all intra-Union communication, deliberation, and documentation between the institutions, offices, and chartered bodies of the TREDT Union.

The TREDT SMP shall serve as the centralized digital infrastructure for hosting meetings, assemblies, judicial proceedings, hearings, legislative debates, public consultations, and other forms of authorized interaction across the Union. It shall uphold principles of transparency, accountability, record-keeping and sovereign data protection, while enabling real-time, inclusive, and secure participation from all organs of the Union.

TREDT SMP shall be maintained under Union law and technological protocols, and shall integrate verified access for the TREDT Legislative House, President of Union, Imperial Court of Justice, State Governors, Charter Oversight Commissions, the TTA, and recognized organizations.”

Article 71: Establishment and Mandate of the TREDT (SMP = Survival Multiplayer) —

- a. There shall be established a secure, virtual environment known as the TREDT SMP, which shall serve as the official digital server and multiplayer interaction space for the governance, communication, and simulation of all recognized institutions of the TREDT Union.
- b. The TREDT SMP shall operate as a Survival Multiplayer (SMP) system, both symbolic and functional, and shall provide a unified virtual-realm infrastructure that enables—
 - i) simulated political, diplomatic, economic, and legal interaction between Union institutions,
 - ii) regulated creation of chartered settlements, digital territories, and in-world economies,
 - iii) official assemblies, debates, and test-policy implementations among Houses, Courts, and Offices,
 - iv) Public participatory forums, model parliaments, and digital membership exercises under Union guidance.
- c. The TREDT SMP shall be—
 - i) regulated and secured by the Council of Server Operators,
 - ii) governed by protocols authorized by the TREDT Legislative House,
 - iii) Accessible to verified offices, including the President of Union, Members of the Houses, Governors, Justices, Chartered Entities, and accredited civil society institutions.

- d. The TREDT SMP shall serve as a training, outreach, documentation, and experimentation platform, without replacing physical constitutional institutions but supplementing them through immersive simulation and collective engagement.
- e. All virtual interactions, decisions, and declarations made within the TREDT SMP under official session status shall be logged, archived, and made reviewable by the TREDT Publications Society (Regd.) for public record or confidential access, as per classification.
- f. The Union Parliament may by law:
 - i) establish rules of engagement, data protection, and dispute resolution within the TREDT SMP,
 - ii) define the recognition of digital acts as legally symbolic or procedurally valid,
 - iii) Confer limited decision-making authority on SMP-based councils, committees, or chartered simulations.

Article 72: Access, Security, and Governance of TREDT SMP—

- a. The TREDT SMP shall be operated and maintained as a Union-authorized digital server, with secure access protocols and verified user governance, ensuring legitimacy, accountability, and sovereign control.
- b. Access to the TREDT SMP shall be granted to:
 - i) Members of the TREDT Legislative House, including both Houses;
 - ii) Offices of the President of Union and the Union Cabinet;
 - iii) Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT and High Courts for judicial simulation or proceedings;
 - iv) Governors of States and authorized State delegations;
 - v) Chartered Entities, granted levels of permission based on their Charter classification;
 - vi) Designated Public Users, including citizens, scholars, or institutions, for observation, consultation, or public engagement events—under controlled participation modes.
- c. The Council of Server Operators shall be the nodal authority responsible for:
 - i) establishing secure login systems, encryption, and identity verification;
 - ii) managing real-time server operations, uptime integrity, and region-specific nodes;
 - iii) creating tiered access levels with audit trails and action logs;
 - iv) Enforcing sandbox zones, protected regions, and administrative permissions for Houses, Courts, and Commissions.

- d. A TREDT SMP Oversight Council shall be constituted to govern the platform's democratic use, policy boundaries, and constitutional integration. The Council shall consist of:
 - i) one representative from each House of Parliament,
 - ii) one member of the Imperial Court of Justice,
- e. All decisions made within TREDT SMP by official bodies, when declared as formal sessions or resolutions, shall carry symbolic or procedural weight, and may be logged as Union Record Events, reviewed by the TREDT Publications Society (Regd.).
- f. Unauthorized access, cyber intrusion, or manipulation of in-world decisions shall be treated as a Union cybercrime, punishable under the Union Cyber Sovereignty Act and subject to jurisdiction by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

PART XVI
ORDER OF SUCCESSION OF POWER OF THE HEAD OF STATE AND GOVERNMENT OF THE TREDT UNION

Abstract

“This Part lays down the constitutional mechanism for succession to the office of the President of the Union, who serves as the Head of State and Government of the TREDT Union. It ensures the continuity, legitimacy, and stability of executive authority in cases of vacancy, incapacity, resignation, removal, or death of the sitting President.

It also establishes a line of succession among high constitutional officers and outlines the process for interim leadership, emergency succession, and the election or confirmation of a new President in accordance with democratic and constitutional principles. This Part safeguards the uninterrupted exercise of Union executive power and upholds the constitutional order during transitions.”

Article 73: Vacancy and Interim Succession of the Presidency—

- a. A vacancy in the office of the President of the Union shall occur upon—
 - i) the death, resignation, or incapacity of the sitting President;
 - ii) the removal of the President by constitutional process; or
 - iii) The expiration of the President's term with no elected successor having assumed office.
- b. In the event of such vacancy, the Vice-President of the Union shall serve as the Acting President until a new President is duly elected or transitioned and sworn in, or until the original President resumes office if incapacitation was temporary.
- c. If the office of the Vice-President is also vacant or the Vice-President is unable to perform presidential duties, the order of interim succession shall be as follows:
 - i) Governor of the Central House (House of Representatives of the Members of Union);
 - ii) President of the Central Council (Council of States of TREDT);
 - iii) Chief Justice of the Imperial Justice of TREDT, solely in a caretaker capacity until a political successor is elected.
- d. The Acting President shall exercise only routine functions of the Union Executive, and shall not—
 - i) declare war or emergency,
 - ii) dissolve Parliament, or
 - iii) sign or revoke Union Recognition Charters,
 - iv) Unless specifically authorized by both Houses of the TREDT Legislative House.

Article 74: Interim Government Succession and Governance—

- a. Upon the natural conclusion of the full constitutional term of the President of the Union, and in the absence of an elected successor, a 26-day Interim Period shall commence, during which the transitional authority of the Union shall be vested in a temporary executive officer known as the Governor-General of the TREDT Union.
- b. The outgoing President, in their final official act, shall appoint the Governor-General from among the Governor Generals or Executive Heads of any Royal or Union Chartered Entity, recognized under Article III of the Article 60(a), provided the individual is—
 - i) not under investigation or conviction,
 - ii) a member of the TREDT Union, and
 - iii) Capable of upholding constitutional neutrality.
- c. The Governor-General of the TREDT Union shall serve for exactly 26 calendar days from the day following the expiration of the President’s term and shall:
 - i) not be subordinate to the TREDT Legislative House (TLH) during this period;
 - ii) be constitutionally and judicially accountable only to the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT (ICJT);
 - iii) Be bound by the Constitution of the TREDT Union in all executive actions.
- d. The powers of the Governor-General during this interim period shall include:
 - i) overseeing continuity of Union administration,
 - ii) maintaining constitutional and civil order,
 - iii) ensuring neutrality of all State and Union executive apparatuses,
 - iv) but shall exclude the power to:
 - 1) – declare emergency,
 - 2) – dissolve legislative bodies, or
 - 3) – grant or revoke Union Recognition or Charters.
- e. During the 26-day interim period:
 - i) political parties and chartered entities intending to contest the upcoming election shall register with the Union Elections Commission (UEC);
 - ii) Nominations for the Office of President shall be submitted and verified by the UEC.
- f. On the 27th day, all executive powers of the Union shall be formally transferred to the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT (ICJT) in trust, until the elected President is sworn in.
- g. The Union Elections Commission (UEC) shall announce and conduct presidential elections within a 7-day window, and publish the certified results not later than the 35th day following the end of the prior President’s term. The newly elected President shall assume office immediately upon declaration of results and ceremonial confirmation by the ICJT.

PART XVII

IMPEACHMENT OF CERTAIN HIGH OFFICERS OF THE UNION

Article 75 — Officers Liable to Impeachment

The following officers of the Union shall be liable to impeachment under this Part:

- a. The President of the Union;
- b. The Vice President of the Union;
- c. The Chief Justice of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT;
- d. The Justices of the High Courts and the Imperial Court of Justice;
- e. Any other officer expressly declared impeachable by Union Law.

Impeachment shall be a constitutional remedy intended to uphold the integrity of the Union, preserve public trust, and prevent abuse of authority.

Article 76 — Initiation of Impeachment Motion

An impeachment motion may be introduced in either House of Parliament, namely:

- a) The House of Representatives of the Members of Union, or
- b) The Council of States of TREDT.

Any sitting Member of either House may introduce such a motion, provided it is:

- a) in writing,
- b) signed by at least one-third of the Members of the House in which it is introduced, and
- c) clearly stating the charges alleged.

The impeachment motion shall not be taken up for consideration unless approved by the Central House Governor (CHG) of the House in which it is introduced.

Upon approval by the CHG, the motion shall stand admitted and transmitted to the Council of States for trial.

Article 77 — Grounds for Impeachment

An impeachable officer may be removed upon conviction for any of the following constitutional offences:

- a) Obstruction of Justice, including interference with judicial proceedings or undermining lawful courts;
- b) Abuse of Power, including misuse of authority, coercion, or unlawful direction of government agencies;
- c) Crimes Against the Constitution, including violation of constitutional oaths, subversion of constitutional institutions, or breach of fundamental obligations;
- d) Obstruction of the House or the Senate, including interference with parliamentary proceedings, coercion of Members, or manipulation of legislative processes;
- e) Crimes of Financial Fraud, including corruption, embezzlement, or misappropriation of Union funds;

- f) Exploitation of Markets for Personal Benefit, including insider trading or manipulation of Union-wide financial systems.

These offences shall be interpreted strictly and proven by substantial evidence.

Article 78 — Trial before the Council of States

All impeachment trials shall be conducted exclusively before the Council of States of TREDT, sitting as the High Court of Impeachment.

The President of the Central Council shall preside over impeachment trials, except when the President of the Union is under trial, in which case the senior-most Justice of the Imperial Court shall preside.

The accused shall have the right to:

- a) be represented by counsel;
- b) produce evidence;
- c) cross-examine witnesses;
- d) receive all documents and charges in advance.

A conviction shall require a three-fourths majority of the total membership of the Council of States.

If convicted, the impeached officer shall be removed from office immediately upon pronouncement of judgment.

Article 79 — Effect of Conviction

Upon conviction by the Council of States:

- a) the impeached officer shall be removed from office;
- b) his or her administration shall legally terminate;
- c) all powers, privileges, titles, and immunities of the office shall cease.

Temporary Administration After Impeachment:

- a) If the President is impeached, the Governor General of the Union, previously nominated by the President, shall act as the Administrator of the Union until the end of the presidential term.
- b) If the President failed to nominate a Governor General, the Vice President shall assume administration until completion of the term.

A person convicted under this Part shall be disqualified from holding any Union office for a period of one year following conviction.

After one year, the individual may contest elections or hold office subject to ordinary qualifications.

Impeachment and removal shall not bar criminal trials for the same misconduct under ordinary Union law.

Article 80 — Procedure and Finality

Parliament may enact laws prescribing detailed procedures for:

- a) Filing of charges,
- b) Discovery of evidence,
- c) Trial mechanisms,
- d) Rights of the accused, and
- e) Enforcement of impeachment judgments.

The judgment of the Council of States shall be final and shall not be subject to appeal, except on questions of constitutional procedure before the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

Article 81 — Safeguards against Abuse

No impeachment motion may be raised based solely on political disagreements, dissent, or policy actions taken in good faith.

Members introducing false, malicious, or politically motivated impeachment charges may be subject to parliamentary discipline, including suspension.

Whistleblowers and witnesses shall be protected under Union law from retaliation.

Article 82 — Public Record

All impeachment proceedings, evidence, and judgments shall be recorded in the Union Gazette.

The complete trial record shall form part of the Permanent Archives of the Union.

PART XVIII

LEGISLATIVE LISTS OF THE UNION

“This Part defines the distribution of legislative powers between the Union, the States, and the Joint Authority, and identifies matters exclusively reserved for the Union Executive and the Imperial Court of Justice.”

Article 83 — the Legislative Lists

For the purpose of determining legislative competence, the subjects of legislation shall be divided into four Lists:

- a) Union List
- b) State List
- c) Joint List
- d) Reserved List

Parliament and the State Legislatures shall legislate in accordance with the distribution established under this Part, and no authority shall exceed the limits of its legislative competence except as specifically provided.

SECTION I — UNION LIST

Article 84 — Subjects under Exclusive Legislative Authority of the Union

The Union Parliament shall have exclusive authority to legislate on matters enumerated in the Union List, including but not limited to:

- xi. Any matter expressly designated by the Constitution as Reserved.

SECTION V — RESIDUARY POWERS

Article 89 — Residuary Legislative Authority

Any matter not expressly included in the Union List, State List, Joint List, or Reserved List shall vest in the Union Parliament.

In matters of emerging technologies, digital governance, outer-space jurisdiction, or SMP multiverse protocols, Union authority shall be presumed unless otherwise stated.

SECTION VI — RESOLUTION OF CONFLICTS

Article 90 — Judicial Interpretation

Disputes relating to interpretation of the Lists shall be adjudicated by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

The Court shall apply the following principles:

- a. Union supremacy in matters essential to national unity;
- b. State autonomy in matters of local governance;
- c. Balance in concurrent jurisdictions;
- d. Protection of the constitutional structure and federal spirit.

SECTION VII — AMENDMENT OF LISTS

Article 91 — Power to Amend the Legislative Lists

Parliament may amend the Union List, State List, or Joint List by:

- a) a two-thirds majority of the TREDT Legislative House, and
- b) approval of at least three-fourths of all States.

The Reserved List may be amended only by:

- a) a three-fourths majority of the TREDT Legislative House, and
- b) consent of the President of the Union, and
- c) advisory opinion of the Imperial Court of Justice.

SECTION VIII — SAVINGS AND TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS

Article 92 — Continuity of Laws

All laws made before the commencement of this Part and relating to subjects under these Lists shall continue in force until amended or repealed.

No action taken under previous Lists or statutes shall be invalid solely due to the reclassification of subjects under this Part.

PART XIX
