

Declaration by the Governor General's Council of Governors & Company Administrators

Issued on Behalf of the TREDT Trading Company (TTCO)

Date: 05/02/2025

Whereas the TREDT Trading Company (TTCO) has been established under its Union Charter, granted with full rights and privileges to conduct its commercial, financial, and industrial activities without undue interference;

And Whereas the Charter of the Company explicitly safeguards the autonomy of TTCO in all matters, including but not limited to its financial affairs, corporate governance, and stock ownership;

And Whereas the TREDT Union Stock Exchange Committee has lawfully issued stocks under the framework of the joint-stock model, and such stocks remain the rightful property of TTCO unless transferred by legitimate trade or transaction;

Now, therefore, the Governor General's Council of Governors & Company Administrators unequivocally declares:

1. Sole Ownership & Governance: The stocks owned by the TREDT Trading Company are the rightful property of TTCO. No entity, including the Union Government or any of its agencies, shall have any claim over the Company's assets, financial operations, or governance.
2. Autonomy of Internal Affairs: The Charter expressly forbids external interference in the internal affairs of TTCO. This includes but is not limited to financial management, strategic decision-making, and corporate policy.
3. Stock Ownership & Investment Rights:
 - a) The stocks issued and maintained by the TREDT Union Stock Exchange Committee are the lawful assets of TTCO.
 - b) As a Joint Stock Company, TTCO allows investment from individuals, private entities, and government agencies.
 - c) However, while any party may buy and hold stocks as an investor, such ownership does not grant them any controlling power over the Company's affairs.
4. Protection Against External Control: No external party, including the Union Government, shall have the right to control, seize, or influence the governance of TTCO. The Company's management and financial decisions shall remain under the exclusive jurisdiction of its appointed administrators and Board of Governors.

Let it be known and recognized by all concerned that the TREDT Trading Company retains full and indisputable rights over its assets, and any attempt to infringe upon these rights shall be considered a violation of its Union Charter.

By Order of the Governor General's Council of Governors & Company Administrators
