

Turning once again to the necessity of securing our borders, we must confront the reality of aggression. The people of the Stephenson Kingdom, in their reckless ambition, have left us no alternative but to respond. There has never been a period in our history when we could claim invulnerability, when we could be certain that foreign threats would not dare encroach upon our land. The actions of the Stephenson Kingdom—hostile, treacherous, and with ambitions that know no bounds—leave us no room for doubt or hesitation.

In times past, such aggressions might have been dismissed as fanciful plots, yet today we face the grim reality of a kingdom that believes it can stretch its reach across our borders. They have underestimated our resolve, our strength, and the power of the TREDT Union. It is with that strength that we stand united, and united we shall march. The TREDT Union, with its unwavering spirit and its indomitable will, shall see to it that this invasion succeeds. We are prepared to face every challenge, no matter how daring or destructive the plans of our foes may be.

To those who would question the resolve of our Union, I say this: we shall not falter. We have witnessed the rise of powers that sought to impose their will upon others, only to see their ambitions crumble before the strength of unity and purpose. WE SHALL DO WHAT IS NECESSARY! For we know the stakes. No force, no deception, no manipulation can deter us from our cause. The people of the TREDT Union shall rise together, and we shall overcome the threat posed by the Stephenson Kingdom, whatever the cost may be.

Should the skies darken and the seas be filled with the rumblings of battle, we shall fight with resolve and dignity. WE SHALL FIGHT in the mountains, WE SHALL FIGHT in the valleys, WE SHALL FIGHT in the streets and on the plains. WE SHALL NEVER SURRENDER! to those who would seek to break us. Our courage will be our shield, our will to prevail, the weapon that leads us to victory.

We are prepared to face the might of the Stephenson Kingdom in every form, and we will not rest until the threat is vanquished. Though the path ahead may be fraught with challenges, we know that with each step, our resolve will grow stronger. And if the day comes when our lands are laid bare, when every obstacle is overcome, we will stand tall as one, for we know that the strength of the TREDT Union is unmatched.

This is the will of the people, the will of the Union. We will carry on, we will prevail, and we will secure our sovereignty for generations to come. THIS IS OUR PLEDGE. THIS IS OUR RESOLVE.

This is our fight. And we shall win!
