ROYAL CHARTER OF THE ROYAL TRADING COMPANY

Granted by TREDT Union

17th March 2025

New Delhi, Delhi

Preamble

In the unyielding pursuit of the economic, diplomatic, and strategic ambitions of the TREDT Union, the Imperial Court of Justice, the TREDT Union, the TREDT Trading Association, and the TREDT Legislative House hereby grant this Royal Charter to the Royal Trading Company. This document establishes the Company's rights, responsibilities, and privileges, ensuring a framework that fosters economic expansion, trade monopolization, and colonial administration within territories under the TREDT Union.

Articles and Sections

Article I: Representative of the Union

The Royal Trading Company is formally recognized as the primary economic and trade representative of the TREDT Union in all international commercial engagements. It is empowered to negotiate, enter into agreements, and conduct trade on behalf of the Union, aligning with the Union's broader economic policies.

Article II: Limited Military Powers

The Royal Trading Company shall maintain a limited military force exclusively for the protection of its trade assets, colonial settlements, and supply routes. This force shall be subject to the oversight of the Union Government, ensuring compliance with the Union's defense policies.

The Company's military authority shall be strictly defensive, and its operations shall require prior authorization from the Office of the President of Union except in urgent cases of security threats.

Article III: Colonization Rights and Powers

The Royal Trading Company is granted the authority to explore, settle, and administer colonies on behalf of the TREDT Union. This includes:

- Establishing settlements and trading posts.
- Exercising local governance under Union oversight.
- Extracting and utilizing natural resources for economic gain.
- Levying taxes and duties within the colonies, subject to Union tax regulations.

The Company may issue its own Courts, Legislative Councils, and Assemblies to maintain law, order, and trade regulations within its administered colonies. These bodies shall function under the constitutional authority of the TREDT Union.

Article IV: Exclusive Trading Zone

The Royal Trading Company shall hold exclusive trading rights over the Northeastern Region of TREDT SMP. No external entities may engage in trade, resource extraction, or commercial activities within this designated zone without formal agreements with the Company.

The Union Government shall ensure the enforcement of this exclusivity, providing necessary legal and regulatory support.

Article V: Seat in the TREDT Legislative House

The Royal Trading Company shall hold a seat in the TREDT Legislative House (TLH), recognizing its role in the economic and political framework of the Union. It may participate in discussions, propose economic policies, and influence legislative decisions that impact trade and commerce.

Article VI: Decision Making in Finance and Banking

The Royal Trading Company shall be involved in financial and banking decisions within the Union, ensuring trade-friendly fiscal policies and investment strategies that benefit both the Company and the Union Government.

Article VII: Governance Structure

The governance structure of the Royal Trading Company shall be tripartite, involving:

1. Governor General of RTCO. – The chief supervisory authority, ensuring compliance with Union policies.
2. Lt. Governor of RTCO. – The political entity advocating for the workforce and ensuring fair labor policies.
3. TREDT Union & TTA – The overarching regulatory body overseeing trade operations and colonial administration.

All major decisions regarding military use, colony establishment, and economic expansion shall require consensus among these governing entities.

Article VIII: Revocation

This Royal Charter may be revoked

This Royal Charter shall stand in full authority and operation until it is automatically revoked exactly one week before the conclusion of the Presidential Term of the D & S Administration, on the 3rd of February, 2026.

Upon this date, the Royal Trading Company shall be dissolved immediately, with all rights, privileges, and assets reverting to the TREDT Union Government. Any existing colonies, trading posts, and legislative councils established by the Company shall be placed under the direct administration of the TREDT Union.

No legal appeal, amendment, or extension shall be permitted to override this clause.

Final Proclamation

This Royal Charter stands as an unbreakable bond between the Royal Trading Company and the TREDT Union, solidifying its role as a key economic powerhouse, colonial administrator, and trade authority.
