

Regulating Act 3rd Amendment Bill, 2025

OFFICE OF PRESIDENT OF TREDT UNION

Preamble: Whereas it is expedient to regulate the membership status of individuals within the Union, ensuring clarity in rights and privileges accorded to its members and defining the responsibilities of the Union Government during times of war or civil war;

Section 1: Title and Commencement

1. This Act shall be called the Regulating Act 3rd Amendment Bill, 2025.
2. It shall come into force on the date of its official publication.

Section 2: Permanent Membership

1. All individuals who were part of Section "E" during the period 2014-2023 shall be granted the status of Permanent Members of the Union.
2. Ishaan Das of Section "A" (2014-2023) shall also be granted the status of Permanent Member of the Union.

Section 3: Guest Membership and Revocation of Rights

1. All other individuals, except those designated as Permanent Members under Section 2, shall be classified as Guest Members of the Union.
2. Guest Members shall be revoked of their voting rights in all Union matters.
3. Guest Members shall be ineligible to hold any seats within the TREDT Legislative House (TLH).

Section 4: Responsibilities of the Union Government During War or Civil War

1. In the event of War or Civil War within or against the Union, the Union Government shall:
 - a) Declare a state of emergency, which must be approved by a two-thirds majority in both houses of the TLH within 48 hours of declaration.
 - b) Mobilize national defense forces, including armed forces, intelligence agencies, and paramilitary groups, to protect the sovereignty and stability of the Union.
 - c) Impose martial law if deemed necessary by the President of the Union, subject to approval from both the TLH and the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT (ICJT).
 - d) Allocate financial and resource support, ensuring adequate defense spending, public safety measures, and wartime economic stability.
 - e) Establish a Wartime Governance Council composed of members from the TLH, the Executive Office, and military leadership to oversee rapid decision-making and enforcement.
 - f) Engage in diplomatic negotiations and international alliances to ensure strategic support and mitigate the impact of war.

g) Maintain civil order by enforcing necessary curfews, security restrictions, and emergency policies as per constitutional limitations.

Section 5: Amendment Procedure

1. This Act may only be amended under the following conditions:
 - a) A unanimous vote in both the Lower and Upper Houses of the TLH.
 - b) A separate order issued by both:
 - i) The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT (ICJT), ensuring constitutional compliance.
 - ii) The President of the Union, ratifying the amendment and ensuring executive approval.
 - c) Any proposed amendment must undergo a 30-day review period, during which expert committees and legal authorities may submit recommendations.

Section 6: Ratification and Enforcement

1. This Act shall be considered fully ratified once:
 - a) It has been passed by a two-thirds majority in both the Lower and Upper Houses of the TLH.
 - b) It has received judicial clearance from the ICJT, affirming its constitutional validity.
 - c) It has been signed into law by the President of the Union.
2. The enforcement of this Act shall be under the jurisdiction of the Union authorities as prescribed by the TLH.
3. Any disputes arising from the interpretation of this Act shall be adjudicated by the ICJT, whose rulings shall be considered final.

Section 7: Repeal and Savings

1. All previous laws, regulations, or orders conflicting with the provisions of this Act shall stand repealed to the extent of such conflict.
2. The rights and privileges granted under this Act shall remain in force unless duly amended following the procedure outlined in Section 5.
