TREDT UNION

ROYAL CHARTER OF THE ROYAL TRADING COMPANY

ROYAL TRADING COMPANY

Preamble

[29th Apr., 2024.]

We, the TREDT Union, being desirous of promoting trade and commerce in the north-eastern part of the TREDT SMP (hereinafter referred to as the "Territory"), do hereby grant this Royal Charter to the Royal Trading Company.

Articles and Sections

Article I: Exclusive Trading Rights

The Royal Trading Company (hereinafter referred to as "RTC") is hereby granted exclusive rights to conduct trade within the designated north-eastern part of the TREDT SMP. No other entity shall engage in commercial activities within this Territory without the express permission of the TREDT Union.

Article II: Villager Trading Halls

The RTC is licensed to establish and operate up to four Villager Trading Halls within the Territory. Each hall may accommodate a maximum of 100 villagers engaged in trading activities.

Article III: Manufacturing Authority

The RTC is authorized to engage in the manufacture of gunpowder and weapons within the Territory for the purpose of trade and defense, subject to compliance with all applicable laws and regulations.

Article IV: Obligations and Privileges

The RTC agrees to abide by the laws and regulations of the TREDT Union and to conduct its operations in a manner consistent with the principles of fair trade and responsible commerce.

In consideration of the privileges granted herein, the RTC agrees to pay to the TREDT Union an annual charter fee as determined by mutual agreement.

Article V: Duration and Renewal

This Royal Charter shall remain in force for a period of ten years from the date of issuance, unless earlier terminated or extended by mutual agreement between the RTC and the TREDT Union.

Article VI: Seal and Authentication

This Royal Charter is issued under the seal of the TREDT Union and shall be authenticated by the signatures of the duly authorized representatives of both parties.

Given under our hands and seals this 29th day of April, 2024.

Article VII: Amendments

Amendments to this Royal Charter may be proposed by either the Royal Trading Company (RTC) or the TREDT Union. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing to the other party, specifying the articles or provisions of the Royal Charter to be amended and providing justification for the proposed changes. Amendments shall be approved by mutual agreement between the RTC and the TREDT Union. Upon agreement, the approved amendments shall be documented in writing and signed by duly authorized representatives of both parties. The amended terms shall specify the effective date of the amendments and any other relevant details pertaining to the implementation of the changes. Shall be passed with a 2/3rd Majority Votes in all the Assemblies and in the TREDT Legislative House with the approval of Union Governor and President of TTA.

In witness whereof, this Royal Charter is executed by the TREDT Union on this 29th day of April, in the year 2024. This Royal Charter is granted to the Royal Trading Company by the TREDT Union, recognizing the importance of fostering commerce and industry within the north-eastern region of the TREDT SMP.
