

ROYAL CHARTER BY UNION

Royal Charter of TREDT Trading Company Granted by Union

Granted on 9th January 2020

By TREDT Union

Under the Administration of President, Ethan Joseph

& Union Governor, Soumya D. Das

TREDT Trading Association President, Zanyung Ronrei

JANUARY 9, 2020

TREDT UNION
New Delhi, Delhi

TREDT UNION

ROYAL CHARTER OF THE TREDT TRADING COMPANY

TREDT TRADING COMPANY

Preamble

[9th Jan., 2020.]

In the relentless pursuit of the economic, diplomatic, and strategic objectives of the TREDT Union, the Imperial Court of Justice, the TREDT Union, the TREDT Trading Association, and the TREDT Legislative House, in solemn concord and accord, do hereby, with the full force of constitutional authority, bestow upon the TREDT Trading Company this Royal Charter. This revered document, a testament to the gravity of the Union's aspirations, delineates the Company's rights, responsibilities, and privileges. Its purpose is to establish a preeminent framework that nurtures economic growth, encourages innovation, and advances the spirit of collaboration within the sovereign boundaries of the Union.

Articles and Sections

Article I: Copyright Laws

The TREDT Trading Company, designated as the primary engine propelling economic endeavors within the Union, is hereby endowed, through the auspices of this Royal Charter, with exclusive rights to promulgate and enforce copyright laws within the territories under the aegis of the TREDT Union. This august empowerment seeks to safeguard intellectual property, cultivate an atmosphere of creative fecundity, and advance innovation, thereby enriching the economic tapestry of the Union.

In the execution of these rights, the Company is enjoined to collaborate harmoniously with duly appointed authorities to ensure the equitable implementation of copyright laws, championing the interests of creators while fostering an environment conducive to economic development.

Article II: Representative of the Union

Acknowledging the TREDT Trading Company as a linchpin in the economic fabric of the Union, this Charter hereby formally designates the Company as the veritable representative of the Union in matters germane to trade, commerce, and economic diplomacy. This elevation empowers the Company to negotiate and consummate international trade agreements on behalf of the Union, serving as the instrumental conduit for economic collaboration and diplomatic accord.

In undertaking this sacrosanct representation, the TREDT Trading Company is mandated to align its pursuits with the overarching foreign policy and strategic imperatives articulated by the Union Government. This collaborative symbiosis ensures that the economic aspirations of the Company coalesce seamlessly with the broader objectives of the Union, fortifying the nexus between economic prosperity and national objectives.

Article III: Military Powers

In cognizance of the interwoven nature of economic and security exigencies, the TREDT Trading Company is hereby conferred with judiciously circumscribed military powers. These powers are invoked exclusively for the purpose of safeguarding the Company's interests and assets, subject, at all times, to the explicit imprimatur and scrutiny of the Union Government.

The Company is enjoined to maintain a scrupulous collaborative engagement with pertinent military authorities to guarantee that its security measures harmonize with overarching national security objectives. This constitutional stipulation endeavors to strike an equilibrium between economic autonomy and the broader security imperatives of the Union.

Article IV: Seat in the TREDT Legislative House

In recognition of the profound impact of economic determinations on legislative frameworks, the TREDT Trading Company is hereby accorded a seat in the TREDT Legislative House (TLH). This constitutional prerogative acknowledges the Company as a substantive stakeholder in the legislative process, affording it an unmediated voice in the formulation of laws and policies that redound to its operational purview and concomitantly contribute to the wider economic expanse of the Union.

The Company's presence and participation in TLH are expressly contingent upon its adherence to transparent and ethical business practices, as well as its steadfast alignment with the socio-economic goals of the Union. This constitutional symbiosis ensures that legislative decisions are informed comprehensively by economic dynamics and are tailored to optimize the well-being of the Union.

Article V: Decision Making in Finance and Banking

Given the integral role of the TREDT Trading Company in the economic bedrock of the Union, this Charter bestows upon the Company the prerogative to actively participate in the decision-making processes of the Union's finance and banking systems. This participatory involvement encompasses consultations on fiscal policies, monetary regulations, and financial strategies that bear directly upon the economic vitality of the Union.

Through this active engagement, the Company becomes an essential architect of policies that strike an equipoise between the exigencies of economic stakeholders and the overarching financial stability and resilience of the Union. This constitutional covenant ensures that the financial architectures remain supple and adaptive to the evolving contours of the economic landscape.

Article VI: Revocation

While the issuance of this Royal Charter solemnizes a covenant of enduring partnership between the TREDT Trading Company and the Union, a meticulously structured revocation process is herein delineated to preserve the integrity of this accord.

This Royal Charter can only be rescinded through a joint approval process involving the Union Governor and the President of the TREDT Trading Association. The revocation process, a nuanced protocol, must be set into motion by a resolution sanctioned by both the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT and the TREDT Legislative House. Such a rigorous procedural framework ensures that the revocation of this Charter is founded upon sound legal principles, judicious deliberation, and a profound assessment of its ramifications upon the economic and strategic interests of the Union.

Article VII: Approval

This Royal Charter, a quintessence of constitutional gravity and consensus, stands unanimously endorsed by the Imperial Court of Justice, the TREDT Union, the TREDT Trading Association, and the TREDT Legislative House. This collective approbation underscores a shared commitment to the cultivation of economic growth, the promotion of innovation, and the nurturing of collaborative synergies within the Union.

Article VIII: Governance Structure

In pursuit of a harmonious and equitable governance structure for the TREDT Trading Company, this Charter articulates the framework by which the Company shall be governed. The governance shall be tripartite, involving the Union Governor, the "Company's Workers Party," and the TREDT Union, with each entity playing a distinctive role in shaping the trajectory of the Company's operations.

Section 1: The Union Governor

The Union Governor, being the chief executive authority of the TREDT Union, shall wield a pivotal role in the governance of the TREDT Trading Company. The Governor, or a designated representative, shall exercise oversight, ensuring that the Company's pursuits align with the broader strategic and policy objectives of the Union. This includes supervising the deployment of military powers, approving international agreements, and safeguarding the Union's interests in all matters concerning the Company.

Section 2: The "Company's Workers Party"

Recognizing the integral role of the workforce in the success and sustainability of the TREDT Trading Company, a dedicated representative body termed the "Company's Workers Party" shall be instituted. This party shall serve as the voice of the Company's employees, advocating for their welfare, rights, and ensuring their interests are duly considered in the decision-making processes of the Company. The "Company's Workers Party" shall be granted a consultative role in matters of strategic importance, fostering a cooperative environment between labor and management.

Section 3: The TREDT Union

The TREDT Union, being the overarching entity overseeing economic and trade affairs within the Union, shall assume a supervisory role in the governance of the TREDT Trading Company. The Union, through its designated representatives, shall participate in high-level decision-making processes, ensuring that the economic pursuits of the Company align with the broader economic policies and developmental goals of the Union. This involvement serves to integrate the Company's operations seamlessly within the Union's economic framework, fostering mutual benefits and shared prosperity.

Section 4: Collaborative Decision-Making

The governance structure outlined herein envisions a collaborative decision-making process, wherein the Union Governor, the "Company's Workers Party," and the TREDT Union work collectively to navigate the complexities of economic, labor, and strategic considerations. Decisions of significant import, such as the deployment of military powers, international agreements, and key operational strategies, shall be subject to consensus or, failing that, a resolution passed by the majority of the governance entities.

This tripartite governance structure seeks to strike a delicate balance, ensuring that the interests of the Union, the Company's employees, and the Company as a whole are duly considered in the decision-making processes, fostering a cohesive and mutually beneficial partnership.

Article IX: Constitutional Amendments

In recognition of the evolving nature of economic and governance dynamics, this Charter acknowledges the potential necessity for future amendments. Any proposed amendments to this Charter shall be initiated by the Union Governor, the "Company's Workers Party," or the TREDT Union. Amendments require unanimous approval from all three entities involved in the governance structure, reflecting a commitment to stability, continuity, and the preservation of the foundational principles set forth herein.

Article X: Company Law Legislature Issue

The TREDT Trading Company, in tandem with the principles outlined in the existing Royal Charter, is unequivocally bound by the Company Law Legislature issued by the Union Government. This legislative framework serves as a comprehensive guide governing the Company's corporate practices, emphasizing adherence to legal standards, transparency, and accountability. As a proactive participant in the legislative process, the Company contributes valuable insights for the formulation and amendment of laws directly impacting its operations, fostering a harmonious alignment between its activities and Union regulations.

Article XI: Company Issued Court of Justice

In accordance with the principles of judicial autonomy, the TREDT Trading Company establishes a dedicated Court of Justice. This internal court is entrusted with the adjudication of matters such as internal disputes, contractual disagreements, and legal issues arising within the Company's operational sphere. The decisions rendered by the Company Issued Court of Justice are binding and enforceable within the Company, providing an efficient and equitable mechanism for resolving legal matters. It operates in strict concordance with Union laws and regulations, upholding the broader legal framework within which the Company operates.

Article XII: Company Newsletter

In a commitment to transparent communication and stakeholder engagement, the TREDT Trading Company introduces a periodic Company Newsletter. This communication medium is designed to disseminate timely information on the Company's operations, achievements, strategic initiatives, and updates to relevant stakeholders. Subject to scrutiny by the Union Government, the content of the Newsletter aligns with broader economic and strategic objectives, ensuring a cohesive and informed corporate community within the Union. The Newsletter stands as a testament to the Company's dedication to legal compliance, judicial fairness, and transparent communication, reinforcing its commitment to the principles of the Royal Charter.

Article XIII: Revocation

To revoke this Charter, the following approvals and orders are required:

1. Imperial Order by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT: The Imperial Court must issue a formal Imperial Order initiating the revocation process.
2. Approval of the TREDT Legislative House:
 - The TREDT Legislative House (both Upper and Lower Houses) must approve the "TREDT Trading Company Total Stock Redemption and Dividend Act."
 - This Act must pass from the Reserved Act List in the Lower House, known as the House of Representatives of Members of Union.
 - Approval from the Upper House (Council of States of TREDT Union) is also required.
3. Legal Framework Order by the Imperial Union Council: The Imperial Union Council must issue a Legal Framework Order to formalize the revocation.
4. Executive Order by the President of Union: The President must sign an Executive Order consolidating all the above approvals and orders.
5. All of this must be presented and submitted to the Imperial Criminal Court of Justice of TREDT.

Additionally, for the revocation to proceed, the Prosecutor must appeal to the Imperial Criminal Court of Justice of TREDT.

Upon completion of these steps, the TREDT Trading Company will dissolve immediately, with full effect.

In witness whereof, this comprehensive Royal Charter is executed by the TREDT Union on this 9th day of January, in the year 2024. This Charter stands as an indelible testament to the enduring partnership between the TREDT Trading Company and the Union, encapsulating the principles of constitutional governance, collaboration, transparency, and mutual benefit. May this Charter serve as an immutable guidepost for the continued prosperity and resilience of the TREDT Union.

President of Union – Ethan Joseph

President of TTA – Zanyung R.

Union Governor - S. D. Das

Chief Justice - S. D. Das

The Royal Ender Dragon Team's Union of States

2020