Preamble: This Act, titled the "TREDT Trading Company Total Stock Redemption and Dividend Act," is enacted to facilitate the comprehensive dissolution of the TREDT Trading Company following the revocation of the "Royal Charter of TREDT Trading Company of 2020." It outlines the redistribution and transfer of assets, rights, and authorities held by the Company to the Union Government, ensuring a structured and lawful transition.

Section 1: Property and Asset Redistribution

- All properties, real estate, and infrastructure owned by the TREDT Trading Company will be transferred to Union Government ownership.
- The Union Government will manage these assets to serve national interests and economic development.

Section 2: Labor Liberation

- All employees of the TREDT Trading Company are to be freed from company employment and protected under Union labour laws.
- The Union Government will ensure fair treatment and support for all former company employees, offering integration opportunities within Union employment policies.

Section 3: Capital Seizure

- All monetary assets, securities, and investments held by the TREDT Trading Company will be seized by the Union Government.
- Seized capital will be allocated under Union policies for public benefit, ensuring transparent financial management.

Section 4: Lowering of Flags and Symbolic Transition

- All flags bearing the TREDT Trading Company insignia will be lowered and replaced by the Union Flag on all poles.
- This act symbolises the end of the Company's authority and the reinstatement of Union sovereignty over all company premises.

Section 5: Dissolution of Company-Issued Courts

- All judicial entities and courts established under the TREDT Trading Company are to be dissolved immediately.
- Future legal proceedings concerning former company matters will be handled by the Union judicial system to ensure consistency with Union law.

Section 6: Nationalisation of Company-Issued Banks

- All financial institutions operated by the TREDT Trading Company will be nationalised and absorbed into the Union's national banking system.
- These banks will adhere to Union banking regulations and oversight by Union financial authorities.

Section 7: Invalidity of Company-Issued Newspapers and Currency

- Newspapers and currency issued by the TREDT Trading Company are hereby declared invalid.
- The Union Government will oversee the immediate withdrawal of these materials from circulation to ensure compliance with Union standards.

Section 8: Transfer of Copyright Powers

- Copyright enforcement powers granted to the TREDT Trading Company will be transferred to the Union Copyright Administration.
- This centralization will ensure that copyright regulations align with Union laws, supporting the nation's intellectual and creative sectors.

Section 9: Invocation and Implementation

- This Act is only to be invoked after the revocation of the "Royal Charter of TREDT Trading Company of 2020," as stipulated in Article XIII of the Charter.
- The Union Government and designated authorities will oversee the orderly dissolution of the TREDT Trading Company, assuming all assets and responsibilities.

Enactment and Authority

- This Act will take immediate effect upon ratification by the TREDT Legislative House and final approval by the President of Union.
- It is a binding legislative instrument, created to protect public welfare and ensure a smooth transition of company assets and functions to Union control.
