

TREDT UNION REGULATING 2ND AMENDMENT ACT, 2024

Presented by the TREDT Legislative House.

Preamble:

Recognizing the need for structured governance and protecting the territorial integrity, unity, and strength of the TREDT Union;
Acknowledging the importance of granting power and recognition to trusted bodies, organizations, companies, and societies that serve in the interest of the Union and its territory;
We enact this Regulating 2nd Amendment Act to protect and regulate the Union Recognition and grant corresponding powers to entities and organizations through various charters.

Article I: Protection of Union Recognition

1.1 Definition of Union Recognition:

The Union Recognition is a formal acknowledgment given to trusted bodies, companies, societies, or organizations that work in the name of the TREDT Union, its values, and its territory. This recognition empowers the recipient entity with rights and responsibilities essential to fulfilling its mission in service to the Union.

1.2 Purpose of Union Recognition:

The Union Recognition is aimed at establishing a strategic relationship with entities that are integral to the welfare, security, and prosperity of the Union. It grants them exceptional rights and powers necessary to ensure effective governance and advancement of Union policies.

1.3 Granting Union Recognition:

Union Recognition may only be granted through a formal process defined in this Act, requiring the following:

- A unanimous vote in both houses of the TREDT Legislative House (the House of Representatives of the Members of Union & the Council of States of TREDT Union).
 - The approval of the President of Union and their Cabinet.
 - The approval of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT for legal validation.
 - The grant will be accompanied by a Royal Charter of Union (for the highest level of recognition).

Article II: Powers Conferred upon Union Recognized Entities

2.1 Territorial and Administrative Powers:

Entities that receive Union Recognition will be granted substantial powers, including but not limited to the following:

- Military Powers: The ability to control and operate military resources and forces within Union-acknowledged territories.

- Diplomatic Powers: The authority to engage in diplomatic relations, treaties, and agreements in the name of the TREDT Union.
- Judicial Powers: The ability to oversee legal matters and operate courts within the designated territories, subject to the Union's legal framework.
- Financial Powers: The authority to manage and oversee financial transactions, economic activities, and revenue collection within the jurisdiction of their operation.
- Colonial Powers: The ability to establish and administer settlements, trade posts, and administrative centers in ungoverned or undeveloped Union territories.

2.2 Limitations and Responsibilities:

While these powers confer substantial authority, they are always exercised in accordance with Union laws, regulations, and constitutional mandates. The entities granted these powers will be held accountable for their actions to the Union's governing bodies.

Article III: Royal Charter of Union and Other Charters

3.1 Types of Charters Granted:

The following charters represent different levels of Union Recognition, each with distinct rights and responsibilities:

- Royal Charter of Union (Highest Level):
This charter grants the most extensive powers, including military, diplomatic, judicial, financial, and colonial rights within the Union's territories. It is granted to the most trusted and strategic entities or organizations. The granting of this charter requires a unanimous vote in both houses of the TREDT Legislative House, approval of the President of Union and Cabinet, and ratification by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- Charter of Union:
This charter grants similar, but less extensive powers than the Royal Charter of Union. It may include partial military or judicial authority but not the full range of powers as the Royal Charter. It is granted through a majority vote in both houses of the TREDT Legislative House, the approval of the President of Union and Cabinet, and the approval of the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.
- Charter of House:
This charter is granted to specific entities or groups within TREDT Union that are responsible for certain regional or sectoral activities. It is less powerful and does not grant military or diplomatic powers, but it may grant certain governance or economic powers. This charter requires majority approval from the Council of States of TREDT Union and the endorsement of the President of Union.
- Charter of Governor:
A lower-level charter, granted to organizations or bodies operating under specific local governance structures, providing administrative or limited financial powers. The Charter of Governor is granted by the Governor of the relevant region or state, upon recommendation from the TREDT Legislative House and approval by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

- Charter of Magistrate:

The most basic level of Union Recognition, granting limited local governance powers, specifically for administrative or judicial functions. It is granted by Magistrates or local authorities with the approval of relevant regional or state governments and ratification by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

3.2 Process for Granting Charters:

Each charter must be granted based on the following formal procedures:

- Proposal from a recognized body, organization, or entity seeking recognition.
- A review and approval process by the TREDT Legislative House (both Houses).
- Formal approval by the President of Union and Cabinet.
- Judicial review and final approval by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

3.3 Revocation of Charters:

Any charter granted under this Act may be revoked under the following circumstances:

- Breach of Union laws and regulations by the recognized entity.
- A unanimous vote by both houses of the TREDT Legislative House.
- A recommendation by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT after legal investigation.

Article IV: Oversight, Accountability, and Judicial Review

4.1 Union Oversight and Accountability:

The recognized entities will be subject to continuous oversight by the TREDT Legislative House and the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT, ensuring they are acting in the best interests of the Union and adhering to constitutional principles.

4.2 Legal and Constitutional Review:

The Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT will have the authority to review actions taken by Union-recognized entities to ensure they comply with the Union's laws and the charters under which they operate.

Article V: Amendments and Modifications

5.1 Amendments to this Act:

This Act may be amended through the following process:

- Proposal by the TREDT Legislative House (both Houses).
- Approval of the President of Union and Cabinet.
- Judicial review and approval by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT.

5.2 Modification of Charters:

Amendments to individual charters can be made in a similar process and are subject to the approval of the Imperial Court and the President.

Article VI: Amendment Procedure

6.1 Right to Amend the Act:

The provisions of this Act may be amended, revised, or repealed as needed, subject to the requirements outlined in this section. The TREDT Legislative House holds the sole authority to propose amendments to this Act.

6.2 Proposing Amendments:

Amendments to this Act may be proposed by:

- The President of Union, through an official proposal presented to the TREDT Legislative House.
- A Member of the House of Representatives, acting in accordance with the legislative procedure.
- A Member of the Council of States of the TREDT Union, acting in accordance with the legislative procedure.

6.3 Approval Process for Amendments: The proposed amendments must be considered, debated, and voted upon in the following manner:

- First Reading: The proposed amendment is introduced to the TREDT Legislative House for initial debate.
- Second Reading: After detailed discussion and any necessary revisions, the amendment is reintroduced for a second vote. If the amendment passes by a two-thirds majority in the House of Representatives of the Members of Union, it proceeds to the Council of States of the TREDT Union for further consideration.
- Third Reading: The Council of States may either approve, modify, or reject the amendment. If approved, the amendment is sent for final approval by the President of Union.
- Final Approval: Upon receipt of approval from both houses of the TREDT Legislative House and the President of Union, the amendment shall become part of the Act.

6.4 Judicial Review of Amendments:

Once an amendment is passed, it is subject to a judicial review by the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT. The Court may scrutinize the amendment for consistency with the Constitution of TREDT Union and Union laws. If deemed unconstitutional, the amendment will be sent back for revision or rescinded.

6.5 Constitutional Consistency:

Any amendment must not contradict the foundational principles of the TREDT Union Constitution and shall be implemented only after confirming that it aligns with Union values, laws, and territorial integrity.

6.6 Transitional Period for Amendments:

In cases where an amendment introduces significant changes, a transitional period may be established by the TREDT Legislative House to ensure smooth implementation of the revised provisions. This transitional period will not exceed 6 months from the enactment date.

Enactment:

This Act, titled the TREDT Union Regulating 2nd Amendment Act, 2024, is hereby enacted by the TREDT Legislative House with approval from the Imperial Court of Justice of TREDT and the President of Union.
