

WARRANT OF ARREST
Issued by the Council of States of TREDT Union

Date: 19th March 2025

To:

Aaron S. Santhosh
Central House Governor

WHEREAS the Council of States of TREDT Union, after careful deliberation and an extensive investigation into the conduct of Aaron S. Santhosh, has found him to be in clear violation of multiple provisions of the TREDT Union's laws, Constitution, and principles of governance, the undersigned hereby issues the following Warrant of Arrest.

The undersigned further finds that Aaron S. Santhosh has committed actions that have undermined the integrity and structure of the TREDT Union and its government, thereby endangering the peace and sovereignty of the Union.

SPECIFIC CHARGES:

1. Defamation of Parliament

Aaron S. Santhosh is accused of making false and malicious statements intended to discredit the legislative body of the TREDT Union, including but not limited to defamatory remarks targeting its integrity, credibility, and honor.

2. Anti-Administration Activities

The accused has actively opposed and conspired against the lawful administration of the TREDT Union, undermining the work and authority of duly appointed government officials and bodies.

3. Misuse of Right to Martial Law

Aaron S. Santhosh is accused of abusing the provisions surrounding martial law, invoking this power in an unlawful manner to achieve personal or political goals, causing undue harm to the sovereignty of TREDT Union and its members.

4. Abuse of Power

It is alleged that Aaron S. Santhosh used his position and authority for engaging in actions that violated the public trust and exploited his official duties for purposes unrelated to his lawful responsibilities.

5. Obstruction of Congress

The accused has been involved in blocking, impeding, and obstructing the lawful functions of the Congress and other key legislative bodies of TREDT Union, including attempts to delay or derail important legislative processes and discussions.

6. High Treason

Aaron S. Santhosh is accused of engaging in actions that threaten the very existence and security of the TREDT Union, destabilizing its government and political systems.

7. Ultimate Centralisation

The accused is believed to have engaged in efforts to centralize power to an extreme extent, bypassing established governance structures and undermining the autonomy of states and local government bodies, threatening the federal structure of TREDT Union.

8. Threat to State Rights

Aaron S. Santhosh is accused of engaging in actions that threaten the rights and powers of the individual states within the TREDT Union, disregarding their rights to self-governance and autonomy in violation of the Union's founding principles.

PUNISHMENT:

The following actions are hereby prescribed as punishment for the aforementioned charges:

1. Stripped of the Central House Governor Position

As a result of the above charges, Aaron S. Santhosh will be immediately removed from his position as the Central House Governor. This action is in line with the gravity of the misconduct and abuse of power associated with his actions.

2. Stripped of the Position of Chief Justice of TREDT Union

Given the involvement in undermining the judiciary, he will also be removed from his role as Chief Justice of TREDT Union. This measure ensures the integrity and independence of the judiciary is maintained.

3. Revocation of Royal Charter and Charter of Union

The Royal Charter, which bestows upon Aaron S. Santhosh certain privileges and status, as well as the Charter of Union, which grants him certain rights and responsibilities within the Union, will be revoked immediately.

4. Fine of 500 Million Emeralds (500M Emeralds)

In accordance with the severity of the crimes committed, a financial penalty of 500 million emeralds will be imposed. These funds will be used to support the restoration of stability and public trust in TREDT Union's institutions.

5. Revocation of Exclusive Trading Zone Rights

All rights to engage in exclusive trade zones, previously granted to Aaron S. Santhosh, will be immediately revoked. This action is intended to limit his ability to further misuse his influence for personal or political gain.

6. Transfer of Director of RTCO to Hemang Chugh

The responsibilities and authority vested in the Director of the RTCO (Royal Trade and Commerce Organization) will be transferred to Hemang Chugh. This is in response to the misuse of trade privileges by the accused.

7. Transfer of Power of Governor of Crabland to Hemang Chugh

The position and powers of the Governor of Crabland, which were previously held by Aaron S. Santhosh, will now be transferred to Hemang Chugh, ensuring continued governance of Crabland in accordance with the laws of TREDT Union.

8. Detained for a period of Two (2) Weeks IRL (Real Life)

As part of the punishment, Aaron S. Santhosh will be detained for a period of two weeks in real life, effectively reducing his status to that of an unemployed NPC, during which time he will be unable to hold any position of power or influence.

EXECUTION OF WARRANT:

The law enforcement agencies of the TREDT Union are hereby authorized to arrest and detain Aaron S. Santhosh as necessary to enforce this warrant and carry out the prescribed punishments. All parties involved in the enforcement of this warrant shall do so in accordance with the laws and principles of justice set forth by the TREDT Union.

This Warrant shall be executed immediately upon issuance, and all necessary legal and administrative actions shall follow to implement the prescribed penalties.

Issued Under the Authority of:

The Council of States of TREDT Union
TREDT Legislative House
